MANAGEMENT & STAFF
OWNERSHIP

PREDATORS HOLDINGS

On Dec. 7, 2007, Predators Holdings LLC purchased the Nashville Predators and Powers Management (the company that operates Bridgestone Arena) and took over the day-to-day operation of the National Hockey League team and Bridgestone Arena. Predators Holdings LLC includes local executives in finance, health care and private business. Members include: Herbert Fritch (Chairman), Christopher Cigarran, Thomas Cigarran, Joel & Holly Dobberpuhl, David Freeman, Bryan Grane, Joey A. Jacobs, J. Brent Jacobs, Scott D. Jacobs, John McEvoy, DeWitt Thompson V, John Thompson, W. Brett Wilson and Warren Woo.

HERBERT A. FRITCH

Herbert Fritch formerly served as President of the Senior segment at Cigna-HealthSpring following the acquisition of HealthSpring by Cigna in 2012. Beginning his career in 1973 as an actuary, Fritch has more than 40 years of experience in the managed healthcare business. A graduate of Carleton College, Fritch is on its Board of Trustees. He assumed the role of Chairman of the Predators' Board of Directors on Jan. 9, 2019.

CHRISTOPHER C. CIGARRAN

Chris Cigarran is the CEO of Imagine Health, the leading provider of next generation health plan solutions for large employers in the United States. Cigarran received his undergraduate degree from Bucknell University and his master's degree from Pepperdine University.

THOMAS G. CIGARRAN

Tom Cigarran is a co-founder and former Chairman, President and CEO and Director of AmSurg Corporation, the nation's largest outpatient surgery center company and a major national provider of physician services to hospitals, surgery centers and other healthcare facilities. He is also a co-founder, former Chairman, President and CEO and Director of Healthways, Inc. He serves as an Advisor to Cressey & Company, a healthcare focused private equity firm. Cigarran was elected Chairman of the Nashville Predators in March 2010 and served as chairman for over eight years until August 2018.

Cigarran has been an active supporter of public education in Nashville for more than 20 years, having served as the Education Chairman of the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce and being a founder and Chairman of the Operating Board of Alignment Nashville, an organization that helps organize the activities of more than 150 Nashville area non-profit organizations, the business community and governmental agencies in support of public education. He has also led the Haiti Education Mission of the Cathedral of the Incarnation for more than 15 years and sponsors a primary and a secondary school in Haiti. He has served on the Board of Vanderbilt University Medical Center and chaired the advisory board of Vanderbilt's Owen School's Healthcare MBA Program, served on the boards of the Harpeth Hall School, Alive Hospice and the Mental Health Association of Middle Tennessee. He has also twice served as Chair of the Nashville Health Care Council.

Cigarran received a Bachelor of Science degree from Villanova University and an MBA from the New York University Graduate School of Business. He and his wife, Connie, are 40 year residents of Nashville, have two children and five grandchildren. The whole family loves Predators hockey.

JOEL & HOLLY DOBBERPUHL

Joel Dobberpuhl, CEO and portfolio manager of Jetstream Capital, an investment firm he founded in 2003, and his wife Holly are founders of the Peter Hawkins Dobberpuhl Foundation. Prior to founding Jetstream Capital, Dobberpuhl was a Senior Portfolio Manager for AIM investments. He is also one of the Predators Alternate Governors on the NHL Board of Governors.

Dobberpuhl received his degree from Southern Methodist University in 1988 alongside Holly (Stone) Dobberpuhl. Together, the Dobberpuhls are active in several charities based in the Nashville area and have both served on the boards of Mercy Children's Clinic and Rocketown Ministries. The Dobberpuhls are residents of Montecito, California.

DAVID S. FREEMAN

David S. Freeman is the CEO of 36 Venture Capital and the former founder and CEO of Commodore Medical Services, a medical waste management company sold in 2007. Freeman received his undergraduate degree from the University of Tennessee and a Juris Doctor degree from the Vanderbilt University School of Law. Freeman serves on the Board of Trustees of the United Way of Metropolitan Nashville and Brandi Chastain's ReachUp Foundation.

BRYAN GRANE

Bryan F. Grane earned his Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance and Business Economics from the University of Notre Dame where he graduated Summa Cum Laude and a member of Beta Gamma Sigma (International Honors Society). Upon graduation, Mr. Grane accepted employment with William Blair & Co. as an investment banker where he worked as a Mergers and Acquisition analyst for two years and achieved Series 7 and 63 certifications. Mr. Grane joined Central States (CST) in February 2000 in a Sales and Operating role. In 2005, he completed his Master of Business Administration at the Kellogg School, Northwestern University and subsequently purchased Central States in 2006. Under Mr. Grane's leadership, CST became one of the premier intermodal logistics companies in the United States and was ultimately sold to Forward Air Corporation (FWRD) in February 2014. Mr. Grane has either directly invested, advised, or lead over 20 separate M&A transactions across a variety of industries, including: Logistics, E-Commerce, Technology, Financial Services, Food & Beverage, Retail and Real Estate. Mr. Grane is the Founder and Director of the St. Rita Mercy Foundation and an eight-year member of YPO (Young President's Organization).

JOEY A. JACOBS

Joey A. Jacobs joined Acadia Healthcare Company, Inc. in February 2011 and has served as the Chairman of the Acadia board of directors and as Acadia's Chief Executive Officer since that time. Jacobs has extensive experience in the behavioral health industry. Prior to joining the company in 2011, he co-founded Psychiatric Solutions, Inc. ("PSI") and served as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of PSI from April 1997 to November 2010; prior to founding PSI, Jacobs served for 21 years in various capacities with Hospital Corporation of America (HCTA, also formerly known as Columbia and Columbia/HCA). Jacobs serves on the board of directors of Envision (formerly AmSurg Corporation), Cumberland Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Mental Health Management, Inc., the Nashville Healthcare Council, The Jason Foundation and Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt. Jacobs was recently nominated by Governor Bill Haslam and confirmed by the Tennessee General Assembly to serve on the Middle Tennessee State University Board of Trustees.

Jacobs is married to his wife of 41 years, Debbie, and they have two sons, Brent and Scott. Outside of work, he enjoys spending time with his family and friends, while also tending to his herd of Black Angus cattle at the family's farm in Warren County, Tenn. In addition, Jacobs is an active church and community member, serving on several not-for-profit boards and giving to numerous local community/charitable organizations, such as Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt, The Jason Foundation and Morrison Elementary School. Jacobs also established the Joey Jacobs Chair of Excellence in Accounting at Middle Tennessee State University.

J. BRENT JACOBS

J. Brent Jacobs serves as Assistant Vice President of Acquisitions and Development at Surgery Partners, previously Symbion Healthcare before its acquisition in November 2014. Prior to joining Symbion in 2012, Jacobs worked as a Senior Associate in the Assurance practice at PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP. He has over 10 years' experience in accounting and finance, while currently focusing on merger and acquisitions, including transactional due diligence and financial analysis. Jacobs is a graduate of Samford University, where he received a BA degree in Business Administration and earned a MAcc from the Brock School of Business. He also holds an MBA from the University of Florida's Hough Graduate School of Business.

Jacobs is married to his wife of six years, Katie. They have two daughters, Emmaline and Joey Kate. He enjoys spending time with his family and friends, playing amateur hockey at Ford Ice Center and racing at the local Fairgrounds Speedway Nashville. Jacobs is an active church and community member, participating in numerous community service projects through the years, including United Way, Habitat for Humanity, Second Harvest Foodbank and Bike MS (National MS Society).

SCOTT D. JACOBS

Scott D. Jacobs serves as Chief Financial Officer at TrustPoint Hospital in Murfreesboro, Tennessee. Prior to joining TrustPoint in December 2016, Jacobs worked as a financial manager in the Financial Planning and Analysis department at Vanderbilt University Medical Center in Nashville, Tenn. He is a graduate of the University of Georgia, where he received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree in Accounting. Jacobs is also a certified public accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA).

Jacobs enjoys spending time with his family and friends, cycling and playing amateur hockey for multiple teams at Ford Ice Center and Centennial Sports Complex. He is an active church and community member, most recently competing in the annual Bike to Jack & Back MS ride (National MS Society).

JOHN M. MCEVOY

With a career in wireless communications spanning over 20 years, John M. McEvoy is a specialist in the recommendation and implementation of integrated mobile retail stores. John began his career in mobile communications in 1995 as a successful Sales Manager for Pacific Bell Wireless and quickly realized the market for wireless was larger than anticipated. In 1997 John founded The Mobile Solution Corporation to capitalize on this need. As President and CEO of TMS, John oversaw all operational aspects of the organization, operating debt free and expanding the company rapidly. The Mobile Solution Corporation grew nationwide to over 3,000 employees and over $500M in revenue by 2006.

Embracing personal core values of integrity, innovation and growth, John founded his real estate investment company, 1551 Fourth Avenue, Inc., in 2004. Currently Mr. McEvoy oversees an extensive portfolio of commercial, residential and multi-family real estate. In addition, Mr. McEvoy has a diverse investment portfolio in technology, oil and natural gas and entertainment. Mr. McEvoy currently holds a minority ownership interest in the Colorado Rockies, having previously owned an interest in the San Diego Padres. The Nashville Predators represent Mr. McEvoy's first investment in the Nashville area. However, when Mr. McEvoy visited Nashville, he was struck by the vibrancy and economic growth of the City. Mr. McEvoy's decision to invest in the Predators was primarily driven by the strength of the organization and team, but was also impacted by the prospects for Nashville as a whole.

DAVID POILE PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS/GENERAL MANAGER

Set to begin his 38th consecutive season as an NHL general manager, making him the longest tenured GM in League history, Nashville Predators President of Hockey Operations/General Manager David Poile has spent 37 consecutive years at the helm of a franchise (22 with Nashville, 15 with Washington) dating back to Aug. 30, 1982 when he was hired by the Washington Capitals. He is the only general manager in NHL history to lead two different clubs for over 1,000 games and 500 victories, and on March 1, 2018 against Edmonton, Poile won his 1,320th game, making him the all-time winningest GM in League history.

Nashville's past two regular seasons have been the best in franchise history, with Poile engineering a team that won the Central Division title for the second consecutive campaign and hit the 100-point mark for the seventh time in 2018-19. The season before, Poile's squad won the Presidents' Trophy and Central Division title for the first time en route to the No. 1-seed and home ice advantage in the playoffs. The Predators recorded 53 wins and 117 points in 2017-18 – both franchise records – and featured Vezina Trophy winner Pekka Rinne, a Poile draft pick in 2004 and the team's all-time leader in wins (341).

After the Predators became Western Conference Champions and Poile advanced to his first Stanley Cup Final in 2016-17, he was named the 2017 General Manager of the Year at the 2017 NHL Awards in Las Vegas, his first such honor after being nominated for award in each of its first three years of existence (2010, 2011 and 2012), while also receiving a sixth-place finish in 2015. Poile is one of the most influential men in the sport, evidenced by his spot on the NHL's Competition Committee all 13 years of existence, appointment to the Hockey Hall of Fame Selection Committee in 2014, and involvement with USA Hockey, highlighted by his service as General Manager of the United States Olympic Team for the 2014 Winter Games in Sochi. On Aug. 9, 2018, Poile's longstanding support and commitment to hockey in the United States was etched in history with his nomination to the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2018. Surrounded by friends and family, he was formally inducted at a ceremony held on Dec. 12, 2018 at the JW Marriott in Nashville.

While Poile continues to use effective drafting and development of home-grown players as the foundation for the Nashville Predators, his blueprint for success has necessitated the welcoming of high-octane offensive performers to the organization and bold trades in recent seasons. Dating back to the 2013 Trade Deadline, Poile and his staff have been aggressive in acquiring young, talented prospects with high offensive ceilings, and proven NHL stars via trade and free agency to supplement Nashville's drafted talent. This formula helped the Predators to their longest postseason run in franchise history – their first trip to the Stanley Cup Final in franchise history – in 2016-17, shattering nearly every Predators postseason record in the process. Under Poile's guidance, the Predators have reached the Stanley Cup Playoffs in each of the past five seasons and 12 of the past 15 campaigns.

Poile's most impactful moves over the past five-plus seasons have been on the trade front, with his two most recent blockbusters being among the largest one-for-one trades in NHL history. On Jan. 6, 2016, Poile acquired the No. 1 center the team has coveted since Day One of the franchise by getting 23-year-old All-Star Ryan Johansen from the Columbus Blue Jackets, and then on July 28, 2017, he signed Johansen to an eight-year, $64 million contract, the largest contract Poile has ever offered. On June 29, 2016, Poile executed the largest transaction in franchise history by acquiring 2013 Norris Trophy winner P.K. Subban and giving Smashville a superstar they've never seen before. Prior to those acquisitions, on April 3, 2013, Poile acquired emerging superstar Filip Forsberg, who has led the team in goals in three of the last five seasons and is the only player in team history to record five 25-goal seasons, from Washington. Forsberg, selected 11th overall in the 2012 NHL Draft, was rated the third-best player by Poile's staff, but slipped due to a run of defensemen being drafted. Other key components acquired via trade include Mikael Granlund, who was picked up from Minnesota at the 2019 trade deadline, Kyle Turris, who came to Nashville from Ottawa in a three-team trade on Nov. 5, 2017, and Calle Jarnkrok (2014), who signed a six-year contract in the summer of 2016.

Despite the recent influx of star players from the outside, the Predators continue to hold firm to their philosophy of building around home-grown products, starting in net with 2018 Vezina Trophy winner Pekka Rinne, and on the blue line with Captain Roman Josi, who set the franchise record for points by a defenseman in a season with 61 (14-47a) in 2015-16; Ryan Ellis, who set career highs in assists (34) and points (41) in 2018-19; and Mattias Ekholm, who has emerged into one of the most reliable defensemen in the game at both ends of the ice and also established career highs in assists (36), points (44) and plus-minus (+27) last season.

In addition to Johansen and Forsberg, the forward corps are anchored by Viktor Arvidsson – who set the franchise record for goals in a season with 34 in 2018-19 – and center Matt Duchene, who signed a seven-year, $56 million contract – the largest free-agent deal in Preds history – on July 1, 2019. Other offensive stalwarts include five-time 20-goal scorer Craig Smith (fourth round in 2009), 2017 Stanley Cup Playoff breakout star Colton Sissons (second round in 2012), Austin Watson (first round in 2010) and Nick Bonino (free agency in 2017). Of the 36 players used by Nashville in 2018-19, 21 were either drafted by the club or made their NHL debuts with the Preds.

To supplement his core players who have been drafted and developed, or acquired via trade, Poile has been among the busiest GMs on the free-agent market the past six summers, signing 19 forwards, seven defensemen and a goalie to NHL contracts during the opening weeks of free agency.

The assertive, team-building plan implemented by Poile from the franchise's inception has helped the organization earn the reputation as one of the most stable, well-built teams in the NHL. Crucial to the plan's success is the ability to make the right selections and develop the young prospects. Poile has assembled a bright staff of personnel charged with those responsibilities, including Assistant General Manager/Director of Hockey Operations Brian Poile, Assistant General Manager/Director of Scouting Jeff Kealty, Director of Player Development/Milwaukee Admirals General Manager Scott Nichol and a team of gifted professional and amateur scouts across North America and Europe.

Poile has long been a proponent of a strong developmental system as a means to develop promising young players into productive NHL players. The Predators' primary developmental affiliate, the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals, captured the first Calder Cup Championship in franchise history in 2004 and revisited the Calder Cup Final in 2006. They have advanced to the Calder Cup Playoffs in 15 of the last 17 seasons, winning five division titles in that span. From 2002-03 to 2010-11, the Admirals became the first team in AHL history to post 40-or-more wins and 90-or-more points in eight consecutive seasons each season with a team predominately made up of Predators prospects.

Poile's wisdom and experience is clearly valued throughout the hockey world, as evidenced by his selection to the post of General Manager of the U.S. Olympic Team for the 2014 Sochi Games. He was associate general manager for the 2010 United States Olympic Team and helped select the team that would become one of the headline stories of the 2010 Games, capturing the hearts of a nation en route to a silver medal. Poile was a member of the U.S. National Team Advisory Group for the third consecutive International Ice Hockey Federation World Championship in 2014, and also served as associate GM for the American entries into the 2009 and 2010 editions of the tournament, and as general manager at the 1998 and 1999 Worlds.

Since its establishment in 2005, Poile has helped guide the NHL Competition Committee, making him one of just two individuals to sit on the committee all 13 seasons of its existence. The steering body that formulates and recommends rule changes for approval by the NHL Board of Governors, the Competition Committee continues to be one of the most influential bodies in the game today having helped usher in innovations featuring on-ice innovations such as the regular-season shootout, hybrid icing and the grandfathering of visors. In March 2014, Poile received yet another prestigious honor by being appointed to the Hockey Hall of Fame Selection Committee and helped mold the Hall of Fame's 61st (2014), 62nd (2015), 63rd (2016), 64th (2017), 65th (2018) and 66th (2019) classes.

Poile's third straight General Manager of the Year nomination in 2011-12 came after the team finished with a 48-26-8 record (104 points), the third-best record in the Western Conference and fifth-best in the NHL, helping the Preds earn home-ice advantage in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. In 2010-11, he was a finalist for the award after Nashville earned the fifth seed in the Western Conference (99 points) and gave up the third-fewest goals in the League (190) despite missing nearly 350 man-games due to injury, and in 2009-10, he constructed a team that was one of 11 to hit the 100-point mark despite having a payroll ranked 28th in the League, earning a spot as a finalist for the inaugural General Manager of the Year Award.

In 2006-07, Poile was recognized by The Sporting News as its "Executive of the Year," an honor he had received twice previously (1982-83 and 1983-84), which is determined through a vote of his peers, after the Predators finished the season with the second-most points in the Western Conference and tied for the third-most points in the entire League. Locally, Business TN magazine honored him as the magazine's "CEO of the Year" for 2006 based on his consistent and successful track record as the team's architect.

In 2001, Poile was a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award in recognition of contributions to hockey in the United States. Poile has devoted his professional career to hockey and the NHL, particularly in non-traditional markets. His late father, Bud Poile, also a recipient of the Lester Patrick Award (1989) and a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame (1990), served as general manager of two expansion franchises – first in Philadelphia (1967) and then in Vancouver (1970). David Poile began his professional career as an administrative assistant with the Atlanta Flames expansion franchise in 1972 and spent 10 years with the organization before being named general manager of the Washington Capitals in 1982. The 2019-20 campaign will mark his 47th in NHL.

For the 1982-83 season, Poile took the reins of a Washington team that had never made the Stanley Cup Playoffs. In his 15 years there, the Capitals advanced to the postseason 14 times. The 1997-98 Capitals, largely comprised of players Poile acquired, advanced to the Stanley Cup Final. During his 15-year tenure, the Caps compiled a record of 594-454-132 (.559), ranking among the NHL's top-five teams during that span.

Poile was instrumental in the League's adoption of the instant replay rule in 1991. He was awarded Inside Hockey's Man of the Year award for his leadership on the issue.

A graduate of Northeastern University in Boston, Poile was hockey team captain, leading scorer and most valuable player for two years, earning a place in the University's Hall of Fame. In June 2014, he received an honorary doctorate degree from American Sentinel University.

Poile also serves as an alternate governor for the team and in December 2007, he added President of Hockey Operations to his title. For the past eight seasons, Poile has donated to Operation Homefront (which provides emergency assistance and morale programs to our U.S. troops), USA Hockey and the Peterson for Parkinson's Foundation for every Predators victory.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Nashville. The Poiles have two children – daughter Lauren and son Brian – and three grandchildren – Ellie, Charlotte and Wyatt.

SEAN HENRY PRESIDENT/CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

In 2018-19, his ninth season in SMASHVILLE, Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena President, Chief Executive Officer and Alternate Governor Sean Henry proudly watched the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena create countless GOLDEN moments. Led by the passion and dedication of the greatest staff in all of sports, the franchise sold out their 153rd consecutive game and the Preds won the Central Division title for the second straight year. This success comes on the heels of a 2018 Presidents' Trophy and a 2017 Western Conference title.

Henry is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating such an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Henry is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside the best employees in the sports and entertainment industry to reach our ultimate goal, to be the #1 sports and entertainment venue in the United States with its centerpiece being the Stanley Cup Champion Nashville Predators hockey team.

The most recent highlight of Henry's career is the successful approval by Metro Nashville Sports Authority of a new lease, which ensures that Nashville's team, the Nashville Predators, will remain at Bridgestone Arena through the year 2049. Most importantly, the new lease eliminates the Metro Davidson County General Fund's support and relieves local taxpayers of any financial responsibility for Bridgestone Arena and the Predators by utilizing existing in-arena revenue streams to maintain, improve and expand the building. Since the last agreement in 2012, the growth of the franchise and arena serve as testaments to a strong model of public-private partnership. As a result of this partnership and a community-wide embrace of the Predators, the creation of projects like the Ford Ice Centers in Antioch and Bellevue have and will continue to spark economic development and growth in communities throughout Tennessee.

Alongside an annual impact of over $600 million in tangible benefit to the community, the memories built within and around Bridgestone are the intangible and possibly even more valuable impact that the growing success has created. The reach, power and passion of the amazing fan base continue to have SMASHVILLE's ripple affect extended in so many new ways. From the Nashville Predators Foundation presented by SmileDirectClub to the brand-new Ford Ice Center in Bellevue and Ford Ice Center Antioch, one of the busiest rinks in North America, to the rising media ratings; the borders of SMASHVILLE's growth positively impact families and businesses all across the region.

The offseason saw over $8 million in renovations for one of the country's busiest venues, a continuation of the $80 million in upgrades and improvements overseen by Henry in the last several seasons – all a part of the organization's plan to make the Bridgestone Arena experience for every guest, player, performer, musician, fan and employee that walks through its doors the best it possibly can be. Led by Bridgestone Arena's talented and creative operations team, Summer 2019 was anchored by the installation of a new scoreboard, FangVision, the construction of Hap & Harry's Tap Room, a full-service Drinkville bar and a new Grab-n-Go location, the incorporation of environmentally-friendly water bottle fill stations throughout the arena, the completion of restroom upgrades and the addition of X-Ray machines, which expedite event entry.

For Henry, on par with every seat filled and every renovation finished, is the organization's commitment to the community through the Nashville Predators Foundation and the Nashville Predators youth hockey programs. During the 2018-19 season, the Foundation donated over $2 million to more than 600 community organizations through grants and other charitable contributions. The organization's Hearts of Gold program also infused the area with more than 9,000 community service hours donated by employees, players and staff. Henry recently played a vital role in the Foundation's groundbreaking naming partnership with Nashville-based SmileDirectClub which introduced SuperGrants valued up to $100,000, allowing several Tennessee-based organizations to complete large-scale projects in support of education, health and cultural needs. This partnership will greatly expand upon the life-changing work that the Foundation has been committed to for over 20 years. Starting in 2016-17, Henry also contributed greatly to the decision to commit $500,000 over the course of five years to AMEND, an innovative YWCA primary prevention initiative dedicated to ending violence against women and girls in our community.

Henry was born a Nashvillian, although it took him 42 years to get here. Before leading his favorite staff in SMASHVILLE, he served for 11 years as the Executive Vice President and COO of the Tampa Bay Lightning, two years as the Vice President of Sales and Marketing with Unity Motion and 14 years with Volume Services Inc., where he worked with the Detroit Pistons, St. Louis Rams and the Washington Redskins.

Though much of his time is spent moving the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena towards its ONE GOAL alongside tireless and passionate SMASHVILLE employees, Henry is grateful for each day he has the opportunity to serve on the boards of the Nashville Predators Foundation, YWCA of Nashville and Middle Tennessee, Nashville Downtown Partnership, Nashville Sports Council, Nashville Chamber of Commerce, the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt, The Sports Fund and stay involved (along with his wife) in his children's schools, sports teams, marching band and clubs.

Despite the numerous titles and accolades Henry has achieved in his professional career, his reigning Father of the Year Award is one that has no equal and one that would not be possible without the support of his wife of 29 years Tracey Manning (a.k.a. the Suburban Diva) or his four children – Steven, Matthew, Amy and Jessica. How Henry managed to win Father of the Year despite his constant attempts to recreate National Lampoon's Vacation and repeated stories (all normally captured in the Diva's writings), is perhaps his greatest achievement.

MANAGEMENT

MICHELLE KENNEDY CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Michelle Kennedy joined the Predators in March 2008 as In-House Counsel. Kennedy, also a certified public accountant (CPA), accepted the additional charge of Chief Financial Officer for the Predators and Powers Management in 2010 while continuing to serve as the organization's General Counsel. In 2017, Kennedy was named the organization's Chief Operating Officer. Kennedy serves as the organization's primary contact with the ownership group regarding governance and corporate compliance matters, in addition to overseeing all legal, finance, information technology and human resources matters and the Nashville Predators Foundation.

Kennedy often has the opportunity to speak to groups about SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion, the 7th Man and the amazingly unique bond that all of those groups share with the Predators organization. Without their support, Bridgestone Arena would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year on multiple occasions by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. The same fan support and unique bond referenced above solidified the organization's status as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean for a sixth consecutive year and also played a large role in the organization being named the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN.

"I am proud to serve these incredible fans alongside the talented professionals in our organization as we continue striving toward our organization's ONEGOAL – to be the #1 sports and entertainment venue in the United States with its centerpiece as the Stanley Cup Champion Nashville Predators hockey team."

Kennedy is also passionate about the work of the Nashville Predators Foundation; she, as well as every player, coach and employee of this great organization embraces the commitment to give back to the community that has given so much to it over the years. Kennedy shares the organization's belief that the work of the foundation is as integral to the mission of the organization as ice hockey and entertainment. Kennedy began her career as an auditor at KPMG International, an advisory, audit and tax services company. After nearly five years in public accounting, she joined Vanderbilt University as an Associate Director of Athletics. For six years, she was responsible for oversight of the department's business operations, including finance, ticket operations, facilities, game and event management, as well as oversight of marketing and corporate sponsorship activities. Kennedy continued to work in a consultative capacity for Vanderbilt while attending law school from 2004-07.

During the 2019 Stanley Cup Playoffs, Kennedy was featured on NBC's female sports initiative platform, On Her Turf, in an episode of "Hockey is for Her," which focused on women in and around the National Hockey League. Kennedy was also a speaker at the 14th Annual MIT Sloan Sports Analytics Conference in Boston in 2019. In addition to being named to the Sports Business Journal's "Game Changers Class of 2018," Kennedy was a finalist for Nashville Business Journal's 2015 CFO of the Year and was featured in Nashville Lifestyles Magazine in the 2016 Top 10 "Women in Business" issue. She has been an adjunct professor at David Lipscomb University and is a former member of the board of Make-A-Wish of Middle Tennessee.

Kennedy obtained a Bachelor of Arts in economics from Vanderbilt University in 1992 and a Juris Doctorate from Vanderbilt University in 2007. A native of Hawesville, Ky., Kennedy now resides in Nashville.

CHRIS JUNGHANS EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER

Chris Junghans enters his 17th season with the company and fourth season as Executive Vice President and Chief Revenue Officer after seven seasons as Senior Vice President, Corporate Development for Predators and Bridgestone Arena. Junghans is responsible for all marketing efforts and locally controlled revenue streams including tickets, sponsorship, premium seats and broadcast.

Junghans has been instrumental in growing and expanding Predators' partnerships and helped build and introduce products like the 501 Club, Lexus Lounge and the Event Level Bunker Suites. Junghans has led the organization's efforts in securing long-term partnerships with such companies as Bridgestone, Nissan North America, Dunkin Donuts, Anheuser Busch, Jack Daniel's, AT&T, Vanderbilt and Coca-Cola Bottling Co. Consolidated.

Junghans is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating such an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Junghans is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONEGOAL.

Junghans was essential in helping Nashville put on the best NHL All-Star experience in League history. Under his leadership the Local Organizing Committee exceeded revenue expectations, allowing organizers to invest in additional resources that engaged hockey fans and showcased Bridgestone Arena, the Predators and city of Nashville.

Prior to his role as Senior Vice President, Junghans led the Premium Seats division for the Predators and Bridgestone Arena. During his tenure as both a Director and Vice President, he was able to develop key products and services that led to a 100 percent revenue increase.

Junghans started his career with the Florida Panthers as a Ticket Sales Account Executive and quickly moved through the ranks. While in Florida, Chris developed programs and services that the Predators and Bridgestone Arena use today.

Born in Washington, D.C., Junghans is a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Among his many accomplishments, including being selected by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 11th Round of the 1993 Major League Baseball Draft as a catcher, he ranks his family and their accomplishments as things he's most proud of to date. He married his high school sweetheart, Carolina, in 1999 and they have three children – Lia (18), Alex (14) and Sofie (10). Junghans currently serves on the board for Partnership 2020 and the Nashville Sports Council and is Vice President of Showcase Baseball of Tennessee. Junghans is also involved in AMEND, a group that will make Nashville the safest city in America for women. In his spare time, Junghans enjoys being on the lake and watching his kids play their respective sports.

NAT HARDEN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF TICKETS, PREMIUM SALES & YOUTH HOCKEY

An "original Predator" who started with the franchise in 1997, Nat Harden is responsible for all tickets sales, premium sales, business analytics, youth hockey and Ford Ice Center Antioch and Bellevue. Under his direction, the Nashville Predators enjoyed their most successful sales seasons to date in 2018-19, stretching their sellout streak to 153 consecutive home games and selling out of season-tickets for the second time in franchise history. Under Harden's leadership, average attendance for the Nashville Predators have remained at over 17,159 per game for the third consecutive season.

Harden is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Harden is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONEGOAL.

Harden started with the Predators as a Fan Relations Account Service Executive before becoming a Corporate Account Executive in 2000. He was promoted to Season-Ticket Sales Manager prior to the 2003-04 season, Director of Ticket Sales in 2006, Vice President of Ticket Sales in 2007 and Senior Vice President of Ticket Sales in 2013.

A graduate of Mississippi State University with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration and a master's degree in Sports Administration, Harden played baseball for the Bulldogs from 1992-96. Since taking over the season-ticket sales, he has required all employees to ring a Mississippi State/Nashville Predators cowbell upon a sale.

Harden and his wife, Paige, reside in Nashville with their two children – 16-year-old son, Ty, and 13-year-old daughter, Clara Scott.

KEITH HEGGER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF FINANCE, CFO

Keith Hegger enters his fourth year with the Predators organization and is the CFO and Senior Vice President of Finance. As the organization's financial leader and a member of the Executive Leadership Team, Hegger oversees the finances for the Nashville Predators, Bridgestone Arena, Ford Ice Center and the Predators Foundation.

Hegger is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Hegger is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONEGOAL.

Hegger's primary responsibilities include oversight of all financial reporting as well as the cash and fiscal management of the company and its assets. Since joining the Predators, he refinanced the local league related credit facility for the organization and helped strengthen the relationship with the local banking partner. Hegger manages the budget and financial projection processes and is the team's primary contact with the NHL regarding financial reporting and projections. Hegger also has a role in the organization's Information Technology function and is becoming increasingly involved in the organization's relationship with the city of Nashville, whose Sports Authority owns Bridgestone Arena.

Prior to joining the Predators, Hegger served as the Vice President of Finance for the NBA's Memphis Grizzlies. While with the Grizzlies he managed the financial and payroll operations of the company, which included participating in a new league credit facility and streamlining the financial close and reporting process. Hegger began his sports and entertainment career with the St. Louis Blues where he headed the accounting department as the Controller. With the Blues, in addition to heading the accounting department, he was involved in several unique growth projects such as the modeling and opening of the historic opera house in downtown St. Louis and the purchase of the Blues affiliated minor league team at the time. After receiving a bachelor and master's degree in accounting from the University of Illinois, Hegger first entered the workforce as an auditor with PricewaterhouseCoopers.

Hegger and his wife, Lauren, reside in Franklin and have two daughters, Charlotte and Emily.

DAVE URSO

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

Dave Urso enters his third season as Senior Vice President of Operations, where he oversees all arena and event operations. His role also focuses on Bridgestone Arena's food and beverage and merchandise operations, managing contractual and relationship elements of partnerships with outside vendors and others and continuing to build upon the Arena's quality control program.

Urso is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Urso is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONEGOAL.

Urso spent 21 years with Centerplate (1988-2009), which first began as a concession manager at the Palace of Auburn Hills until 1995. After this first job, Dave moved onto become a Concessions Manager with the Jacksonville Jaguars until 1997. The following year he started his five-year career with Tropicana Field as their General Manager before becoming Centerplate's Vice President of Operations for the Southeastern United States in 2002. Most recently, Dave spent six years as a Regional Vice President for Delaware North Sportservice.

Urso and his wife, Tracy, reside in Brentwood. He has two sons – Jack, 15, and Austin, 21, who graduated from the University of Florida in 2019 and works for Lockheed Martin in Dallas, Texas.

DAVID KELLS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF ENTERTAINMENT AND MARKETING

David Kells has been with Bridgestone Arena and the Nashville Predators since 2005. During his tenure he has served as the Conversion Manager, Event Manager, Director of Marketing, SVP of Booking and currently as the SVP of Events and Marketing.

Kells is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Kells is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONEGOAL.

David quickly developed a passion for live entertainment after working his first concert at the age of 18 and is proud to have been part of Nashville's live entertainment community ever since. Over the course of his career he has worked for SFX Entertainment, Great Big Shows, and AC Entertainment. Prior to joining the Bridgestone Arena staff, David helped manage the legendary Exit / In and has been involved in producing such festivals as Dancin' In the District (Nashville, Tenn.), Sundown in the City (Knoxville, Tenn.) and Birmingham City Stages (Birmingham, Ala.).

In addition to helping oversee Bridgestone Arena's rise to one of the top venues in the U.S. and the 2017 Pollstar Arena of the Year award, Kells has received personal recognition for his hard work in the industry. Kells was named the 2017 Pollstar Venue Executive of the Year, International Arena Buyers Association's Venue Executive of the Year in 2014 and 2016 and has been nominated for Pollstar's Facility Executive of the Year 7 times. A lover of hockey from a young age, Kells' hockey career peaked in 1980 when he received the Most Improved Player Award from the Massena Minor Hockey Association.

Kells and his wife, Lucy, reside in Inglewood and have one daughter, Kathryn.

HEIDI BUNDREN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL COUNSEL

Heidi Bundren enters her fifth season with the Predators, and third in her role as General Counsel, in 2019-20. Bundren serves as the organization's chief legal advisor and provides direction on all legal matters impacting the team, Bridgestone Arena and Ford Ice Center Antioch and Bellevue. Additionally, she is extensively involved in the organization's human resources, labor and employment matters and works closely with the vendors that work with the Predators and Bridgestone Arena on a daily basis. She joined the organization in 2015 as Senior Counsel, was promoted to Assistant General Counsel in 2016 and entered her current position in October of 2017.

Bundren is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating such an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Helper is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONEGOAL.

Bundren began her career as a consultant at KPMG Consulting (currently BearingPoint), which offers global business consulting and advisory services. Prior to working for the Predators, she spent two years as a briefing attorney at the First Court of Appeals of Texas and more than five years at Haynes and Boone, a Texas-based AmLaw 100 U.S. law firm. Bundren's practice has been varied, but has been concentrated in litigation and employment law matters.

Bundren earned a BA in business administration and marketing from the University of Saint Thomas in 1999 and a Juris Doctorate from the South Texas College of Law in 2005. A native of Houston, Texas, she now resides in Nashville with her husband, Brandon, and two sons, Riley and Rhett. Heidi serves as a board member of both Ronald McDonald House Charities of Nashville and Catholic Charities of Tennessee.

GERRY HELPER SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & SENIOR ADVISOR

A veteran of more than 40 years in hockey having been with the National Hockey League or one of its teams since 1979, Gerry Helper joined the Predators in October 1997, and has served in various communications roles. In his current role, Helper assists in relations with the Sports Authority, Sports Council, Metro and State Governments. Helper works closely with upper management on external organizational and franchise communication issues. He has also served in various capacities on the board of the Predators Foundation and is currently the Chairman. Since its inception, the Foundation has distributed more than $6.5 million to Nashville area charitable and community service organizations, including a single-season record of over $675,000 in 2018-19.

Helper is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating such an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Helper is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONEGOAL.

Helper has also been active with USA Hockey, serving as a communications liaison for the United States' silver medal-winning team at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics and on USA Hockey's marketing council from 1994-99.

He was on the NHL's Communications Advisory Board from 2004-09 and was the organization's point person with the NHL for the 2003 NHL Entry Draft in Nashville, which drew more than 13,000 people to Bridgestone Arena. In 2011-12, the Predators Communications Department received the Dick Dillman Award, presented by the PHWA to the top communications department in each conference, and was a finalist again in 2012-13.

In his first stint with an expansion franchise, Helper spent nearly seven years (1991-97) with the Tampa Bay Lightning as the team's Vice President of Communications and assisted with the development of Tampa Bay's successful 1999 NHL All-Star Weekend bid. Helper also spent time as the NHL's Director of Information (1987-89) and Director of Public Relations (1989-91) after beginning his sports career with the NHL's Buffalo Sabres (1979-86). He also worked several Stanley Cup Finals and All-Star Games throughout his career.

Helper served on the board of directors for the Middle Tennessee YMCA and Joe C. Davis Camp Widjiwagan and is currently on the board of the Nashville Sports Council. He is a 1979 graduate of St. Bonaventure University with a BA in mass communications and a 2000 graduate of Leadership Music.

Helper and his wife, Kim, reside in Franklin and have two daughters – Renee and Abigail.

DAVID CHADWELL VICE PRESIDENT OF EVENTS

David Chadwell is the current Vice President of Event Operations for the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena, a role he assumed in August 2012. A well-rounded executive with experience in front and back of house operations including crowd control, event medical, event services, food and beverage, parking, public safety, quality assurance, space planning and ticket operations, Chadwell is responsible for the experience of every guest entering Bridgestone Arena. Chadwell was instrumental in designing and developing Lexus Lounge, a state of the art 500-person capacity event level lounge with annual revenues of over $5 million. Chadwell joined Bridgestone Arena and the Nashville Predators full time in 2003 as Box Office Event Manager, advanced to Assistant Director of Ticketing in 2004 and Director of Ticket Operations in 2005.

Chadwell is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Chadwell is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONEGOAL.

Before coming to Bridgestone Arena, the Nashville native worked at Starwood Amphitheatre and Creative Artist Agency. He also spent time on tour with the legendary B.B. King. A Middle Tennessee State University alumnus, Chadwell has a bachelor's degree in Mass Communication with an emphasis in Music Business. During his tenure with Bridgestone Arena, Chadwell has received three awards for Leadership, as voted on by his peers. He has been a member of the International Ticketing Association (INTIX) since 2005 and International Association of Venue Managers (IAVM) since 2012.

Chadwell and his wife, Scarlett, reside in Mt. Juliet, love to travel and have two sons – Tyson and Maddox.

KYLE CLAYTON VICE PRESIDENT OF OPERATIONS

Kyle Clayton is entering his third season as the Vice President of Operations for the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena. Clayton is responsible for ensuring Bridgestone Arena remains dedicated to the fan experience by implementing fan feedback seasonally through building upgrades. Each offseason, Bridgestone Arena focuses their renovation plans on enhancing areas for every person that enters the building. Clayton's background in accounting and budget management has enabled the organization to maximize each project's potential. His team's experience provides flexibility that allows many projects to be completed in extremely short offseasons while maintaining a busy concert schedule that consistently ranks in the Top 10 in the U.S. Clayton is also responsible for managing the Predators relationship with the Metro Sports Authority and handling other governmental affairs.

Clayton is most proud of and grateful for all of Smashville, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as 2017 Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM.

Our fan support solidified our spot as a 2017 Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Clayton is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONEGOAL.

Clayton started with the organization in 2007 as an intern in the accounting department. Upon graduating from Tennessee Tech, he started full time in April of 2008. Throughout his time in Smashville, he has served as Staff Accountant, Senior Accountant, Assistant Director of Finance, Director of Financial Reporting, Senior Director of Operations and now Vice President of Operations. Clayton is honored to work for his hometown team that is ranked as the number one franchise in all of sports.

Clayton, a Middle Tennessee native, resides in Thompson's Station, Tenn., with his wife, Amanda, and children, Jackson, Noah and Charleston.

TIM FRIEDENBERGER VICE PRESIDENT OF FACILITY OPERATIONS

Tim Friedenberger is in his seventh season serving as the Vice President of Facility Operations with the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena.

Friedenberger is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Friedenberger is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONEGOAL.

Friedenberger began his career in sports and entertainment with the Tampa Bay Lightning in 1992. During his tenure, he served as the lead Ice Technician, Director of Operations, and Vice President of Facility Operations.

He got his first taste of the entertainment industry while touring around the country with various types of productions, and cut his teeth on the business of ice as a project manager installing ice rinks throughout the United States, Europe and Asia. Friedenberger's passion and dedication to ice and hockey has earned him the respect of his peers throughout the NHL.

Friedenberger and his wife, Ginger, reside in Nolensville and have three sons whom all love hockey and Tennessee.

BRITT KINCHELOE VICE PRESIDENT OF GUEST SERVICES

Britt Kincheloe first joined the staff of then called 'Nashville Arena' prior to its grand opening in December 1996. During her 22 years on staff, Kincheloe has worked at the switchboard, in the box office and in marketing and group sales before joining the premium seats department. In her position, she oversees the service departments for Corporate Development, Premium Services and season-ticket citizens.

Kincheloe is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Kincheloe is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONEGOAL.

A graduate of Vanderbilt University with a bachelor's degree in communication studies, Kincheloe is passionate about Mickey Fisher Memorial Scholarship initiatives and enjoys traveling and spending time with family.

DANNY SHAKLAN VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS

Danny Shaklan joined the Nashville Predators marketing department in 2010. His current responsibilities include overseeing all marketing and communication functions, including creative development around Smashville and in-game, online and grassroots marketing, media buying, sponsor and ticket sales activations and social media for both the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena.

Shaklan is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating such an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Shaklan is proud to serve these incredible fans alongside our core leadership group to continue reaching our organization's ONEGOAL.

Prior to joining the Predators, he spent five years with Country Music Television (CMT) in the Consumer Marketing department, where he helped promote "CMT Crossroads," "Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders: Making the Team," "Gone Country" and "World's Strictest Parents." Danny started his sports career working at Major League Lacrosse, owned by celebrity fitness guru, Jake Steinfeld (Body By Jake).

Born in New York, Shaklan is now a proud resident of Smashville, where he resides with his wife Jen, their sons Sam and Jesse and their dog Mo.

DELMAR SMITH VICE PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Delmar Smith joined the Predators in July of 2006 and was promoted to his current role as Vice President of Corporate Partnerships in March of 2015. "D" oversees all corporate partnerships for the Predators, Bridgestone Arena and Ford Ice Center Antioch and Bellevue. He also serves on the Board of Directors for Special Olympics of Tennessee. Prior to joining the Predators, Smith served as the Chief Operating Officer for Nashville Shores Waterpark and Marina for seven years, and was the Director of Group Sales for the Nashville Sounds Baseball Club for five years prior to that.

Smith is most proud of and grateful for all of SMASHVILLE, the Loyal Legion and 7th Man for creating an amazingly unique bond with the Preds. Without their support, we would not have been recognized as Arena of the Year by Pollstar magazine, IEBA, CMA and ACM. Our fan support solidified our spot as a Top Workplace with The Tennessean and as the No. 1 professional sports franchise by ESPN, and without their tireless dedication to this franchise and passion for all we aim to achieve, we would not be the organization we are today. Smith and his wife, Jodi, reside in Lebanon and have two kids – son Luke and daughter Lille. Smith, who is a Nashville native, attended Mt. Juliet High School and graduated from the University of Tennessee with a degree in sports management and business.

BRIAN POILE ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS

Brian Poile enters his 10th season with the Nashville Predators as the Director of Hockey Operations and his second as Assistant General Manager in 2019-20. In his role, Poile assists in all facets of the daily management of the hockey department, fiscal and strategic planning, player and staff personnel decisions, player contract negotiation and arbitration. In addition to working with the pro scouting department, Poile oversees the teams' top minor affiliation agreements with the AHL's Milwaukee Admirals and ECHL's Florida Everblades. Poile also serves as the team's Alternate Governor for the Milwaukee Admirals and is on the AHL's Player Development Committee. Poile is the conciliator for hockey operations and the organization's leadership team, finance, legal, corporate partnerships, marketing, communications, community relations, broadcast, human relations hockey facilities and Bridgestone Arena ventures. He also will carry out his responsibilities as the team's Director of Hockey Operations, which include managing the club's roster, player payroll, budget, salary cap, the team's statistical and competitive analysis departments, the training, medical and equipment staffs, NHL CR administration, NHL CBA compliance, and the department's day-to-day business operations.

During his tenure, Poile has been a part of every playoff series win in team history including Anaheim (2011), Detroit (2012), Anaheim (2016), Chicago (2017), St. Louis (2017), Anaheim (2017) and Colorado (2018). Most recently, Poile helped oversee the two most successful regular seasons in franchise history, which included a Presidents' Trophy (2017-18) and back-to-back Central Division titles (2017-18 and 2018-19). Also, in his time with the Predators management team, David Poile has been nominated for General Manager of the Year three times and won the award in 2017.

Poile began his career with the NHL's Dallas Stars under the leadership of Bob Gainey and Doug Armstrong as the Stars' Director of Team Services and then spent three seasons as the Star's Director of Hockey Operations for their AHL affiliate, the Utah Grizzlies, in Salt Lake City. In his role in Utah, Poile managed the Grizzlies hockey department, club roster, budget, player contracts, team travel, schedules, training camps, AHL/ECHL/CHL scouting, team and AHL administration. He also served as an AHL Alternate Team Governor, managed the Grizzlies affiliation agreements with the Dallas Stars (NHL), Montreal Canadiens (NHL), Florida Panthers (NHL), Lexington Men-o-War (ECHL), New Mexico Scorpions (CHL) and Idaho Steelheads (ECHL) as well as the administration and compliance for the AHL and Professional Hockey Players Association Collective Bargaining Agreement.

Hockey roots run deep in the Poile family. He is the son of Predators' President of Hockey Operations/General Manager David Poile, and grandson of Hockey Hall of Fame Inductee, 1947 Stanley Cup winner, Norman "Bud" Poile. Poile earned his bachelor's degree in communications at Boston College.

Poile and his wife, Valerie, reside in the Nashville area and have one son, Wyatt, and two dogs, Wiley and Dexter. The Poiles are members of the Nashville community and support many health and fitness groups, animal rescues, Best Buddies Tennessee and Peterson for Parkinson's.

JEFF KEALTY ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, DIRECTOR OF SCOUTING

Jeff Kealty enters his 19th season with the Nashville Predators organization and second as the team's Assistant General Manager and Director of Scouting in 2019-20, overseeing Nashville's professional and amateur scouting efforts.

Before being promoted to Director of Player Personnel on Dec. 1, 2017, Kealty spent 11 seasons as Nashville's Chief Amateur Scout; his scouting played an integral role in the acquisitions of Filip Forsberg, Ryan Johansen and Calle Jarnkrok. With his experience in amateur scouting all over the world and development of prospects within the Predators system, 10 players who were drafted by the Predators during his tenure are on the team's current roster, including Roman Josi, Ryan Ellis, Mattias Ekholm, Viktor Arvidsson, Colton Sissons, Craig Smith, Austin Watson, Dante Fabbro, Miikka Salomaki and Juuse Saros. Players drafted under Kealty's watch combined for 281 points (111g-170a) during the 2018-19 regular season, helping Nashville win the Central Division for the second consecutive season. The Predators have also reached the Stanley Cup Final (2017), won the Presidents' Trophy (2018) and qualified for the playoffs in each of the last five seasons with Kealty overseeing the team's scouting.

The Boston native has overseen Nashville's past 12 drafts, helping to bolster the club's depth across the board, selecting 48 forwards, 29 defensemen and 12 goalies since his first year running Nashville's draft table in 2008.

Nashville continued to reap the benefits of Kealty and his staff's astute drafting over the past few seasons. Two more Preds draftees – Fabbro (2016 first-round pick) and Rem Pitlick (2016 third-round pick) – made their NHL debuts during the 2019-20 season, with Fabbro skating in all six of Nashville's Stanley Cup Playoff contests. Juuse Saros, another Kealty draft choice (2013 fourth-round pick), has solidified his spot on the NHL roster, while prospects Eeli Tolvanen (2017 first-round pick) and Alexandre Carrier (2015 fourth-round pick) made their League debuts in 2017-18 and 2016-17, respectively. Forsberg – who has led the team in points four of the last five seasons and has tallied five 20-goal campaigns – was ranked third by Nashville's scouting staff for the 2012 NHL Draft, an integral component in his acquisition from Washington. Additionally, the blockbuster trade for All-Star center Ryan Johansen was made possible by the scouting staff's knack for selecting world-class defensemen.

Other homegrown selections selected early in the Kealty era such as Roman Josi, Mattias Ekholm, Ryan Ellis, Craig Smith and Viktor Arvidsson have developed into core pieces of the Predators. Looking down the entire organizational depth chart, Nashville is bullish on the future of Fabbro, Tolvanen, Pitlick and 2015 fourth-round pick Anthony Richard amongst others in a deep crop of talent.

A first-round pick (22nd overall) of the Quebec Nordiques in 1994, Kealty was signed by Nashville as a free agent in 1998 following a four-year college career at Boston University. The former defenseman played one pro season for the Milwaukee Admirals (International Hockey League) before his playing career was cut short due to injury.

Kealty and his wife, Lynn, reside in Norfolk, Mass., and have two kids (twins) – son James and daughter Hannah.

SCOTT NICHOL GENERAL MANAGER, MILWAUKEE ADMIRALS & DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Scott Nichol enters his second season as General Manager of the Milwaukee Admirals and seventh as the Predators Director of Player Development in 2019-20. As General Manager, Nichol manages the Predators' primary development affiliate, the American Hockey League's Milwaukee Admirals, in addition to his role as Director of Player Development. During Nichol's six seasons of guidance in his player development role, he has helped players such as Filip Forsberg, Viktor Arvidsson, Colton Sissons, Austin Watson and Miikka Salomaki secure full-time spots in the NHL and lead the team to the playoffs in each of their last five campaigns.

Nichol hung up the skates and rejoined the Predators organization in May 2013 after completing a 20-season professional career that spanned from 1994-95 to 2012-13. The Edmonton, Alta., native played four seasons with the Preds from 2005-09, posting 47 points (24g-23a) in 209 games. A veteran of 662 career NHL contests, Nichol tallied 127 points (56g-71a) and 916 penalty minutes with Buffalo, Calgary, Chicago, Nashville, San Jose and St. Louis and scored a career-best 10 goals in 2007-08 with the Preds. Nichol also compiled 211 points (90g-121a) and 1,029 penalty minutes in 398 games at the American and International Hockey League level with Rochester, Detroit and Milwaukee. He helped the San Jose Sharks advance to back-to-back Western Conference Finals in 2010 and 2011 and won the AHL's Calder Cup as a member of the Rochester Americans in 1996.

Perennially one of the NHL's top face-off men, Nichol, led the League in face-off efficiency in 2007-08 with Nashville and during the 2009-10 season with San Jose. He also holds a Nashville franchise record for shorthanded goals in a game and period with two in the second period of a 5-2 victory at St. Louis on Jan. 19, 2008.

Nichol and his wife, Christie, reside in Nashville and have three kids – sons Hayden and Foster and daughter Sophia. Hayden and Foster plays hockey for the Nashville Jr. Preds and lacrosse for No Excuse Lax; Sophia plays lacrosse for Woodland Lax and No Excuse Lax.

SEBASTIEN BORDELEAU FORWARD DEVELOPMENT COACH

Sebastien Bordeleau enters his first season with the Nashville Predators organization as the Forward Development Coach in 2019-20. In his role, he will assist Director of Player Development/Milwaukee Admirals GM Scott Nichol in following and evaluating forward prospects drafted and signed by Nashville, helping them with their maturation process into NHL players by focusing on nutrition, off-ice workouts and conditioning, practice habits and game performance.

Bordeleau returns to the Predators organization after spending three seasons with the team as a forward from 1998-01. He tallied 68 points (28g-40a) in 146 games with Nashville, including 40 (16g-24a) during the franchise's inaugural campaign in 1998-99. A seven-year NHL veteran, the Vancouver, B.C., native posted 98 points (37g-61a) in 251 games with Nashville, Montreal, Minnesota and Phoenix from 1996-02. He played the final 10 seasons of his professional career in Switzerland, competing for Bern and Biel-Bienne, winning the league championship in 2004 with Bern.

He served as a skills coach for the Canadiens in each of the last two seasons; he also spent the 2018-19 season as a skills coach for the Montreal Canadiennes of the Canadian Women's Hockey League.

Bordeleau and his wife, Chantal, reside in Montreal, Que., and have two kids – son Thomas, who plays hockey for the U.S. National Team Development Program, and daughter, Jade, who plays soccer.

ROB SCUDERI DEFENSE DEVELOPMENT COACH

Rob Scuderi enters his first season with the Nashville Predators organization as the Defense Development Coach in 2019-20. In his role, he will assist Director of Player Development/ Milwaukee Admirals GM Scott Nichol in following and evaluating defensive prospects drafted and signed by Nashville, helping them with their maturation process into NHL players by focusing on nutrition, off-ice workouts and conditioning, practice habits and game performance.

Scuderi retired in 2016 after spending 12 years in the NHL with the Pittsburgh Penguins, Los Angeles Kings and Chicago Blackhawks. He is a two-time Stanley Cup champion, claiming hockey's ultimate prize with Pittsburgh in 2009 and Los Angeles in 2012, and in his 738 career NHL games picked up 110 points (8g-102a) and 198 penalty minutes. The defenseman served as an alternate captain on Pittsburgh's Cup-winning squad and captained the AHL's Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins during the 2004-05 season.

Scuderi, a Syosset, N.Y., native, played college hockey at Boston College from 1997-01, winning the NCAA title in 2001 and the Hockey East championship three times.

During the 2018-19 season, he served as a development coach for the P.A.L. Junior Islanders, a junior hockey team located in Hauppauge, N.Y.

Scuderi and his wife, Courtney, reside in Garden City, N.Y., and have four kids – sons Ryan and Brett and daughters Kate and Claire.

DAVE ROOK GOALTENDING DEVELOPMENT COACH

Dave Rook enters his sixth season with the Nashville Predators organization and first as Goaltending Development Coach in 2019-20. In his role, he will assist Director of Player Development/Milwaukee Admirals GM Scott Nichol in following and evaluating goaltending prospects drafted and signed by Nashville, helping them with their maturation process into NHL players by focusing on nutrition, off-ice workouts and conditioning, practice habits and game performance.

Rook spent the previous five seasons serving as a goaltending consultant for the Predators. A coach in junior and professional hockey for more than 20 years, Rook has extensive experience helping goaltenders reach the NHL and AHL, including Preds goalies Juuse Saros and Troy Grosenick. Under Rook's guidance, Saros has developed into a full-time NHL goaltender for Nashville and was named to the 2017-18 All-Rookie Team.

In addition to his work with the Predators, he spent nine seasons as the goaltending coach for the OHL's London Knights, winning the Memorial Cup in 2005 and the OHL championship in 2005 and 2016. Rook also has two additional years of NHL experience, working with the Columbus Blue Jackets as their goaltending coach from 2009-11.

Rook and his wife, Krista, reside in London, Ont., and have two sons – Cameron and Tyler.

TOM NOLAN CHIEF AMATEUR SCOUT

Tom Nolan enters his second season as the Predators' Chief Amateur Scout in 2019-20. Nolan, who formerly served as one of the team's North American amateur scouts for 10 seasons beginning in 2008, was promoted to Chief Amateur Scout on June 21, 2018. In his role, Nolan assists Assistant General Manager/ Director of Scouting Jeff Kealty in overseeing the organization's amateur scouting efforts all over the globe.

During his 11-year tenure with the organization, Nolan has had a hand in scouting many players who currently feature on the Predators roster. Nolan scouted Associate Captain Ryan Ellis, who set career highs in assists (34) and points (41) last season, as well as 2017-18 NHL All-Rookie Team goaltender Juuse Saros. Standouts Viktor Arvidsson and Colton Sissons were all drafted to the Predators under Nolan's watch, and the Springfield, Mass., native also scouted 2017 first-rounder Eeli Tolvanen. Nolan played two seasons of professional hockey in the East Coast Hockey League and International Hockey League from 1998-00. He recorded 48 goals and 96 points with the ECHL's Mobile Mysticks from 1998-00 and had stints with the IHL's Grand Rapids and Houston, in addition to one game with the American Hockey League's Springfield Falcons. Prior to turning pro, Nolan was a standout at the University of New Hampshire, compiling 164 points (66g-98a) in 135 games for the Catamounts from 1993-98.

Nolan and his wife, Shannon, reside in Hampton, N.H., and have two kids – son Ryan and daughter Reese.

PETER LAVIOLETTE HEAD COACH

Head Coach Peter Laviolette enters the 2019-20 campaign on the heels of the three best seasons in Nashville Predators history that were headlined by back-to-back Central Division titles (2017-18 and 2018-19), a Presidents' Trophy (2017-18) and a trip to the 2017 Stanley Cup Final. A 2006 Stanley Cup Champion as the head coach of the Carolina Hurricanes, Laviolette begins his sixth season with the Predators with the ultimate goal of capturing the franchise's first Stanley Cup. Known for his aggressive, up-tempo philosophy, he was named the second head coach in Predators history on May 6, 2014.

Last season – his fifth with the Predators – Laviolette's group hit the 100-point mark for the seventh time in franchise history and finished the regular season with a 47-29-6 record, winning the Central Division for the second time in as many seasons. Nashville became the first team in 10 years win the Central in back-to-back fashion and in doing so became one of just three teams to qualify for the Stanley Cup Playoffs in each of the last five seasons, joining Pittsburgh (13) and Washington (5). In addition to the division title, Laviolette also recorded two career milestones during the 2018-19 campaign. Coaching in his 18th NHL season, Laviolette won his 600th career game on Jan. 21, 2019 at Colorado, becoming the second American-born coach and 20th in League history to reach the milestone. He also won his 200th game behind the Nashville bench on Dec. 1, 2018 in a 5-2 victory over Chicago at Bridgestone Arena.

In his fourth season at the helm of the Predators in 2017-18, his squad set the franchise record for wins and points in a season, going 53-18-11 with 117 points. He became the second American-born head coach in NHL history to win the Presidents' Trophy and led the Predators to Second Round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the third straight season, the first time the franchise had done so. Individually, Laviolette added a seventh trip to the Second Round of the playoffs to his NHL resume and served as the Central Division's head coach at the NHL's All-Star Weekend in Tampa for the third time in his career by virtue of the Predators owning the best record at the halfway mark of the regular season.

Laviolette's Predators finished 2016-17 with a 41-29-12 record and ranked 16th in NHL's regular-season standings, qualifying for the postseason as the second Wild Card team in the Western Conference. Nashville ultimately became the third club seeded lowest in its conference to advance to the Stanley Cup Final since the League adopted the conference-based playoff format in 1994. In the process, Laviolette reached the Conference Finals for the third time as an NHL head coach (also 2006 with Carolina and 2010 with Philadelphia), becoming just the third head coach to do so with three different teams.

The 2016-17 regular season also saw a pair of milestones for Laviolette. With a 4-2 victory over Minnesota on Jan. 22, 2017, Laviolette became the 25th coach in NHL history to record his 500th win. Then, just two months later, Laviolette coached his 1,000th career game, making him one of 28 to accomplish the feat in League history. Of the 28 individuals who have coached at least 1,000 NHL games, Laviolette's .589 point percentage ranks sixth among the field. He enters the 2019-20 season with 618 career wins, second in all-time victories for a U.S.-born coach, trailing only John Tortorella.

In season No. 1 in the Music City in 2014-15, Laviolette coached the Preds to a 47-25-10 record (104 points) – nine more wins and 16 more points than the team finished with a season earlier – to return to the Stanley Cup Playoffs. The 2014-15 season was highlighted by a scorching start which saw the Preds top the Western Conference standings in each of the season's five full months (November-March). At 2015 All-Star Weekend in Columbus, Laviolette and his staff manned the Team Toews bench after the Predators held the League's highest point percentage at the season's midpoint (.725, 27-9-4 record). It was his second career NHL All-Star appearance, having shared coaching duties at the 2011 NHL All-Star Game in Raleigh. His efforts also earned him a spot as one of three finalists for the 2015 Jack Adams Award, the second time in his career he has been named a finalist.

In 2015-16, he picked up where he left off in season No. 1 in Smashville, leading the team to its third-ever playoff series victory in dramatic fashion, staving off elimination in Game 6 of their Western Conference First Round series vs. Anaheim, then winning the franchise's first Game 7, on the road no less, to advance. Nashville would reach new heights in the Second Round vs. San Jose, winning the longest game in franchise history in Game 4 to even the series, and again forcing a Game 7 with another overtime win in Game 6, making it the longest postseason run in franchise history at the time.

Upon coming to Nashville, Laviolette immediately instilled the intensity and urgency necessary to help veteran players thrive and young players reach their potential. Players like Roman Josi and Filip Forsberg continued their trajectories toward stardom with record-breaking performances in 2015-16, while others like Ryan Johansen, Viktor Arvidsson, Mattias Ekholm and Ryan Ellis have continued their development into elite NHLers.

Prior to joining the Predators, Laviolette compiled a career coaching record of 389-282-(25)-63 (866 points) in parts of 12 seasons with the New York Islanders (2001-03), Carolina Hurricanes (2003-09) and Philadelphia Flyers (2009-14). Like the Preds in 2014-15, each of his previous three teams improved exponentially in the first full season after he took the helm: the Islanders finished with 96 points and the eighth-best record in the League in 2001-02 after finishing 30th with 52 points the season prior; the Hurricanes went from 23rd in the NHL with 76 points to fourth with 112 points in 2005-06; and the Flyers improved from 88 points and 18th in the NHL to 106 points and fourth in 2010-11. Laviolette won 52 games in his first full season with Carolina in 2005-06 – earning him runner-up Jack Adams Award honors in the closest vote in award history – in addition to recording back-to-back 47-win seasons with Philadelphia in 2010-11 and 2011-12, and hitting the 40-win mark on three other occasions (2001-02, 2006-07 and 2007-08).

Including his Stanley Cup win in 2006 with Carolina, Laviolette has made 11 postseason appearances – two with the Islanders in 2002 and 2003 to end a seven-year postseason absence for the franchise; Carolina's Stanley Cup run in 2006; three with the Flyers – all of which saw the team advance beyond the opening round, including the 2009-10 campaign, when he took over midseason and led the team to Game 6 of the Stanley Cup Final; then in 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2019 with the Predators.

Laviolette's offensive-minded philosophy is evidenced by his teams finishing in the Top 10 in goals seven times in 13 full NHL seasons, with three of those being top-three results. When coaching a team for a full season, Laviolette's squad has only once finished lower than 14th in goals for. That doesn't include his two midseason takeovers where the Hurricanes improved their goals average from 1.87 to 2.23 when he moved behind the bench in 2003-04, and when the Flyers finished eighth in offensive output in 2009-10.

During his time in Tennessee, Laviolette's proven formula for offensive success has resulted in many Preds players reaching new heights on the scoresheet. Under his tutelage, forward Arvidsson broke the franchise record for goals in a single season with 34 in 2018-19 and has developed into one of the NHL's most explosive talents. Arvidsson was third in the NHL in goals per game (.59) last season, scoring 34 in just 58 contests, and has found the back of the net at least 29 times in each of the last three seasons. Forsberg, acquired from Washington in April of 2013, skated as a rookie at age 20 under Laviolette and is entering his sixth full NHL season with 145 goals to his credit, the 16th-most in the League since 2014-15. Perhaps most notably has been Laviolette's work along the Nashville blueline; Predators defensemen have tallied 980 combined points (254g-726a) during the Laviolette era, the most in the NHL in that time span. Leading the way have been Captain Roman Josi, who set the franchise record for points by a defenseman in a season with 61 (14g-47a) in 2015-16, and Associate Captain Ryan Ellis, who set career highs in assists (34) and points (41) in 2018-19.

His work with Nashville's young core continues a long track record of developing talent at the NHL level – in Philadelphia, Claude Giroux played his first full season under Laviolette in 2009-10, and has become one of the NHL's elite offensive producers, posting 93 points and finishing fourth in Hart Trophy voting in 2011-12; James van Riemsdyk played his first NHL games under Laviolette in 2009-10, then hit the 21-goal mark as a 21-year-old in his sophomore season a year later; Jakub Voracek improved his point-per-game average from .58 with Columbus to .75 with Laviolette's Flyers teams after a trade in the summer of 2011; Wayne Simmonds doubled his goal total from 14 in 2010-11 with Los Angeles to 28 in his first season with Philadelphia in 2011-12; and Matt Read posted 24 goals as a rookie in the same season. Former Predators star Scott Hartnell also hit career highs in goals (37) and points (67) in 2011-12 with the Flyers, being named to his only All-Star Game.

In Carolina, Eric Staal played his first four-plus seasons under Laviolette, notching a career-high 45 goals and 100 points to finish fourth in Hart Trophy voting during the Cup-winning campaign; Justin Williams, a three-time Stanley Cup winner and the 2014 Conn Smythe Trophy recipient as playoff MVP, posted his top-two point totals and only two 30-goal seasons under Laviolette in 2005-06 and 2006-07. Finally, with the Islanders in 2001-02, 24-year-old Mark Parrish hit the 30-goal mark for the only time in his career.

One of just eight men employed as an NHL head coach at the start of the 2019-20 campaign to have won a Stanley Cup, Laviolette has served as head coach for the United States at three World Championships: in 2004 when the nation earned its first medal in eight years, a bronze, in Prague, Czech Republic; the following spring at the 2005 Championship in Innsbruck and Vienna, Austria; and most recently in 2014 in Minsk, Belarus. He has also represented his country in four Olympic Games, first as a player in the 1988 Calgary Games and the 1994 Lillehammer Games, then as a head coach at the 2006 Torino Games, and as an assistant at the 2014 Sochi Games.

A native of Franklin, Mass., Laviolette began his coaching career with the ECHL's Wheeling Nailers in 1997-98, guiding them to a 37-24-9 record and a spot in the Northern Conference Final. He was hired as head coach of the American Hockey League's Providence Bruins following his rookie season in West Virginia and proceeded to lead the Bruins to an AHL-best 56-16-4-4 record during the 1998-99 season and the 1999 Calder Cup title. Given Providence's 19-49-7-5 record and last-place finish in the AHL the season prior to Laviolette's takeover, his efforts earned him the 1999 Louis A.R. Pieri Memorial Award as AHL Coach of the Year. He spent one more season in Providence, with the team advancing to the 2000 Eastern Conference Final, before being promoted to an assistant coach under Pat Burns and later Mike Keenan with the parent Boston Bruins, which he assumed for a single campaign (2000-01) until his hiring as 10th coach in New York Islanders history on May 23, 2001.

The former defenseman began his coaching career after 11 seasons playing professionally in the National, International and American Hockey Leagues, and internationally for the U.S. National Team, from 1986-97. He amassed 268 points (78g-190a) in 594 minor-league games in the IHL (Indianapolis, Colorado, Denver, Flint and San Diego) and AHL (Binghamton and Providence) from 1986-97, while appearing in 12 games for the New York Rangers in 1988-89. Laviolette also spent the majority of the 1987-88 and 1993-94 seasons with Team USA preparing for the Olympics, recording a pair of assists in six games at the 1988 Games, then wearing the "C" and scoring one goal in eight games at the 1994 Games.

The Westfield State (Mass.) University graduate finished his collegiate career ranked 14th on the school's all-time points list (43g-44a-87pts) and was named its alumnus of the year in 1988 and inducted into its sports hall of fame in 2002. A three-year captain, Laviolette led the Owls in scoring and was an MASCAC all-conference defenseman his senior season.

Laviolette and his wife, Kristen, have three children – sons Peter and Jack, and daughter Elisabeth.

KEVIN MCCARTHY ASSOCIATE COACH

Kevin McCarthy enters his sixth season with the Nashville Predators organization and third season as Associate Head Coach in 2019-20 and brings nearly 40 years of professional hockey playing, coaching and front-office experience to his position. McCarthy's responsibilities include running the team's defensemen and consulting on its power play.

McCarthy has helped the Predators reach the Stanley Cup Playoffs in each of his first five seasons with the club, most recently helping oversee Nashville's second straight Central Division title in 2018-19, the first team to do so in back-to-back seasons in 10 years. In 2017-18, McCarthy was part of a coaching staff that contributed to the most successful regular season in franchise history that resulted in banners honoring its Central Division, regular-season Western Conference and Presidents' Trophy titles. The year prior, in 2016-17, McCarthy played an integral role in the Predators reaching Game 6 of the Stanley Cup Final, a historic first appearance in franchise history. During the 2015-16 season, several of McCarthy's power-play stalwarts saw career years, highlighted by superstar Filip Forsberg tying the then-franchise record for goals in a season alongside Viktor Arvidsson. In his first season with Nashville in 2014-15, McCarthy helped the franchise return to the playoffs for the first time in three seasons, making a nine-win and 16-point improvement.

Prior to joining the Predators, McCarthy served as an assistant coach on Peter Laviolette's staff in Philadelphia for five seasons from 2009-14. The duo joined the Flyers on Dec. 4, 2009 and proceeded to lead them to Game 6 of the 2010 Stanley Cup Final, then see the team make an 18-point improvement during their first full season in 2010-11. Philadelphia won 47 games and advanced past the opening round of the Stanley Cup Playoffs in both 2010-11 and 2011-12, with McCarthy helping the likes of Claude Giroux, James Van Riemsdyk, Jakub Voracek, Wayne Simmonds and former Predator Scott Hartnell blossom into NHL stars or hit career years during his time working with them.

The bulk of McCarthy's work behind the bench came with the Hartford Whalers/Carolina Hurricanes organization for 16 seasons from 1992-2009, including its Stanley Cup-winning campaign in 2005-06 and another Stanley Cup Final appearance in 2001-02.

After three seasons as an assistant for the Whalers (1992-95), he served as head coach for the franchise's AHL affiliates in Springfield (1995-97) and New Haven (1997-99), compiling a 156-123-36 record. He rejoined the parent team for the 1999-2000 season and spent the next nine years as a Hurricanes assistant. In addition to team success, he helped Eric Staal go from an 18-year-old rookie to a 100-point producer and veterans like 2014 Conn Smythe Trophy winner Justin Williams experience a career year.

McCarthy's coaching career started as a player-assistant coach for the AHL's Hershey Bears (1987-88), before a full-time move behind the bench as an assistant in 1988-89 and head coach in 1989-90. He also has front office experience as the Flyers Director of Player Development from 1990-92.

The former defenseman spent 10 seasons in the NHL with the Flyers, Vancouver Canucks and Pittsburgh Penguins from 1977-87, posting 258 points (67g-191a) in 527 career games. During his time with Vancouver, he served as the Canucks' team captain for three seasons (1979-82) and was named a starter in the 1981 NHL All-Star Game. A native of Winnipeg, Man., McCarthy played his junior hockey for his hometown Clubs and Monarchs of the Western Canada Hockey League and was a member of Canada's 1975 World Junior Championship team that earned a silver medal.

McCarthy and his wife, Rhonda, reside in Nashville. They have three daughters: Melissa, Meaghan and Mallory, and three grandchildren: Cannon, Pryce and Chase.

DAN MUSE ASSISTANT COACH

Dan Muse enters his third season with the Predators organization in 2019-20. In Muse's two seasons on the Predators' bench, the team has posted a combined 100-47-17 record, earned the 2018 Presidents' Trophy and won back-to-back Central Division titles.

Prior to joining the Preds, Muse won the Clark Cup as head coach of the Chicago Steel of the United States Hockey League, a position he held for two seasons. Before his arrival in Chicago, Muse served as an assistant coach at Yale University from 2009 to 2013 before being promoted to the title of associate head coach at Yale from 2013 to 2015. In addition, Muse served as video coordinator for the United States National Junior Team in 2013 and 2014, winning a Gold Medal at the 2013 World Junior Championship. He has also been behind the bench as an assistant coach at Sacred Heart University, Williams College and Milton Academy.

Muse saw plenty of success as an assistant coach and associate head coach at Yale, including winning an NCAA National Championship with the Bulldogs in 2013. In 2014-15, Yale led the nation in team defense (1.64 goals-against average) and finished the season with the NCAA's top-rated penalty kill (90.1 percent). During his time with the Bulldogs, Muse helped guide the team to Ivy League regular-season titles in 2010, 2011, 2013 and 2015, as well as a pair of ECAC tournament titles and NCAA Tournament appearances in those four seasons.

After missing the playoffs in his first season with the Steel, Muse came back to coach a team that finished with a 38-17-5 record during the 2016-17 regular season before winning three, best-of-five series to capture the 2017 Clark Cup. Muse's club finished with the USHL's top-ranked penalty kill in 2016-17 with a 90.3 percent success rate.

Muse and his wife, Maureen, reside in Franklin and have three kids – daughters Fiona and Niamh, and son, Kieran.

DAN LAMBERT ASSISTANT COACH

Dan Lambert enters his first season with the Nashville Predators organization as an assistant coach in 2019-20. Lambert's responsibilities include running the team's power play and consulting on its forward group.

Prior to joining the Predators, Lambert spent two seasons as head coach of the Western Hockey League's Spokane Chiefs. In 2018-19, he led the Chiefs to a 40-21-2-5 record en route to the WHL's Western Conference Final, the team's longest playoff run since 2011. Lambert amassed an 81-46-5-8 record during his two seasons in Spokane and his teams ranked among the best offensively in the WHL, finishing third in 2018-19 and sixth in 2017-18 in goals scored. Under Lambert's guidance, Spokane's power play led the WHL in 2018-19, operating at 29.1 percent (81-for-278), the second-highest across the entire CHL and the WHL's sixth-highest in the last 10 seasons.

Lambert also brings NHL coaching experience to the Predators bench, having served one season as an assistant coach for the Buffalo Sabres in 2015-16. Following his time in Buffalo, he spent the 2016-17 campaign as head coach of the AHL's Rochester Americans, where he helped nine players establish AHL career highs in points. Before his stops in Buffalo and Rochester, Lambert spent six seasons with the WHL's Kelowna Rockets, serving five as an assistant (2009-14) and one as head coach (2014-15). During his lone season at the helm of the Rockets, he led the team to the Ed Chynoweth Cup as WHL champions and a spot in the Memorial Cup, where they fell in the championship game to the OHL's Oshawa Generals. He coached Preds forward Colton Sissons in Kelowna from 2010-13, helping him set career highs in goals in each of his three seasons.

Internationally, the Saint Boniface, Man., native coached Preds defenseman Dante Fabbro and Team Canada Red to a silver medal at the 2014 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge.

As a player, the 5-foot-9 defenseman enjoyed a professional career that spanned 19 seasons from 1990-2009. Selected in the sixth round (106th overall) by the Quebec Nordiques in the 1989 NHL Draft, Lambert appeared in 29 NHL contests, tallying six goals and 15 points. He had stints in the AHL, IHL and Finland before closing out his playing career in Germany, spending 10 seasons in the country's first division with four different squads. He won the Spengler Cup with Cologne in 1999 and the German league championship with Krefeld in 2003.

Before making his NHL debut in 1990 with Quebec, Lambert played four seasons for the WHL's Swift Current Broncos, captaining the team in his final two campaigns and leading them to the 1989 Memorial Cup. He tallied 102 points (25g-77a) in 57 games with Swift Current in 1988-89, and in addition to being named Memorial Cup MVP, was selected as the WHL's top defenseman. He left the Broncos as the franchise's all-time leader in assists with 244.

Lambert and his wife, Melanie, have three daughters: Melissa, Julia and Brooke.

LAWRENCE FELONEY ASSISTANT COACH - VIDEO

Lawrence Feloney enters the 2019-20 season as his 10th with the Nashville Predators organization and second with the title of Assistant Coach – Video, after five seasons as video coach. He previously served as video coordinator from 2010-13. He is responsible for video analysis of all pre-scout and Predators game film and manages the organization's video systems.

In 2014, Feloney received the opportunity to represent his country for the first time, serving as video coach for the U.S. Men's National Team at the IIHF World Championship in Minsk, Belarus. He handled all aspects of the team's video preparation, scouting and review for the tournament, working alongside Team USA and Predators Head Coach Peter Laviolette, and Team USA and former Predators Assistant Coach Phil Housley.

Prior to joining the Predators, Feloney spent four seasons as the video coordinator for the New Jersey Devils top developmental affiliate, the American Hockey League's Lowell Devils from 2006-10.

The Natick, Mass., native started his work in video while serving as team manager and video coordinator for the University of Massachusetts-Amherst men's hockey team from 2003-05. Feloney graduated from UMass-Amherst with a bachelor's degree in sports management in 2005.

BEN VANDERKLOK GOALTENDING COACH

Ben Vanderklok enters his sixth season as the Nashville Predators goaltending coach in 2019-20. In his position, Vanderklok works with all the goaltenders in the Nashville system, including those playing in Milwaukee (AHL), amateur leagues and Europe.

During his five seasons with the Preds, Vanderklok has helped the team's goaltenders reach new heights, helping them record an NHL-best 2.56 goals-against average since the 2014-15 campaign. Pekka Rinne has flourished under Vanderklok's watch, winning the 2018 Vezina Trophy as the NHL's top goaltender and being named to the NHL All-Star Game four times (2015, 2016, 2018 and 2019). In the 2018-19 season, Rinne hit the 30-win mark (30-19-4) for the eighth time in his career and fifth consecutive campaign, joining Devan Dubnyk and Braden Holtby for the longest active such streak in the NHL. Rinne posted another spectacular season, finishing third in goals-against average (2.42), tied for fourth in save percentage (.918) and 10th in wins (30) among the 19 goalies who played at least 50 games. He moved into a tie for 22nd on the NHL's all-time wins list (341) and on Nov. 21, 2018 vs. St. Louis, passed Miikka Kiprusoff to become the winningest Finnish-born goaltender in NHL history with his 320th. Additionally, Vanderklok helped guide Juuse Saros to a career-high 27 starts and 17 wins in 2018-19, as the Finnish netminder posted a 17-10-2 record to go along with a .915 save percentage. Rinne posted one of the best statistical seasons of his career in 2017-18 and with his Vezina Trophy was the first Preds player to win an individual, performance-based award. He finished first in save percentage (.927), even-strength save percentage (.938) and goals-against average (2.31) and third in wins (42) among goalies with at least 50 games played. Rinne's other accomplishments during the 2017-18 campaign included winning his 300th career NHL game, earning his 50th career shutout and setting the record for most shutouts by a Finnish-born goaltender (45) on Nov. 24, 2018. Vanderklok also helped Saros be named to the NHL's All-Rookie Team after he recorded a .925 save percentage – the third-highest in a single-season in team history – and an 11-5-7 record as a 23-year-old in 2017-18. During the 2016-17 season, Rinne was the NHL's First Star of the Month in November, making him the first Predators player in team history to accomplish the feat. Later that season, Rinne backstopped Nashville to the Stanley Cup Final for the first time in franchise history, reaching Game 6 against the Pittsburgh Penguins. In 2014-15, his first season working full-time with Vanderklok, Rinne tied for second among all NHL goaltenders in wins (41), was third in goals-against average (2.18) and tied for seventh in save percentage (.923), which earned Rinne one of his four career Vezina nominations (2011, 2012, 2015, 2018). As a result of being a part of the coaching staff of the team with the best point percentage at the midpoint of the 2014-15 season, Vanderklok also represented the Predators at the 2015 All-Star Game.

Prior to his current role, Vanderklok served as the organization's assistant goaltending coach for five seasons from 2009-14, where he worked with nearly all the goalies within the organization. His work has been integral in Saros' transition to North America. In 2015-16, Saros was named to the 2016 AHL All-Rookie Team after ranking fourth among all league netminders in goals-against average (2.24), tying for fourth in wins (29), tying for sixth in shutouts (4) and tying for eighth in save percentage (.920). Additionally in 2013-14, Scott Darling came to the organization with one AHL game to his credit, and ended the season ranked among the league leaders in save percentage (.933), goals-against average (2.00) and shutouts (6) for the Admirals, earning him a full-time NHL position with the Chicago Blackhawks.

The Welland, Ont., native worked as goalie coach for the Ontario Hockey League's Niagara IceDogs from 2008-14, helping them reach the playoffs in six consecutive seasons and a trip to the 2012 OHL Final. During his first four seasons with the IceDogs, Vanderklok helped Mark Visentin become a first-round pick of the Arizona Coyotes (27th overall), earn a pair of medals with Team Canada at the World Junior Championship, be named the 2011 OHL Goaltender of the Year and earn the 2012 Dave Pinkney Trophy as the goalie with the lowest goals-against average. Visentin also broke a 62-season OHL record for most shutouts in a season in 2011-12 (10).

Vanderklok started his coaching career with the Port Colborne Pirates of the Golden Horseshoe Junior Hockey League (Junior B) from 2003-06 before instructing and training Brock University's (Ontario) goalies from 2007-09. Since 2003, he has run Ben Vanderklok Goaltending, which conducts camps and clinics in St. Catharines, Ont. A dual Canadian-Dutch citizen, Vanderklok retired from play following four seasons (2000-04) and two league titles in 2002 and 2003 with the Amsterdam Tigers of the Netherlands Elite League. He played a pair of seasons with the OHL's Barrie Colts from 1998-2000.

Vanderklok and his wife, Marlene, resident in Brentwood and have one daughter, Ava.

DAVID GOOD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

David Good enters his 16th season as the strength and conditioning coach of the Nashville Predators in 2019-20. He joined the Predators in July of 2004 and is responsible for preparing and supervising workout programs for all players in the Predators organization. Good also helps run the club's prospect development program and the off-ice aspects of the Predators Hockey School.

Good was instrumental in developing a program for Steve Sullivan that allowed the Predators forward to return to the ice on January 12, 2009 after almost a two-year absence that included missing 142 straight regular-season games and 11 playoff games due to a back injury. In June of 2009, Sullivan won the NHL's Bill Masterton Memorial Trophy given "to the player that best exemplifies the qualities of perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey." During the summer of 2010, he designed and outfitted the new weight room at Bridgestone Arena with triple the amount of space to facilitate optimal in-season training.

Prior to joining the Predators, Good served as the Director of Speed-Strength and Conditioning for West Coast Sports Performance and Center for Athlete Medicine in Manhattan Beach, Calif., and also served as a consultant for the ECHL's Long Beach Ice Dogs. The Colorado native served as the Assistant Speed-Strength and Conditioning Coach for the Los Angeles Kings from 1999-2003 and held the same title from 1997-99 with the Ice Dogs, then of the IHL. He also served as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles from 1998-99.

Before moving to California, Good served as the Student Assistant Strength and Conditioning coach at the University of Colorado for two years. He received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from the University of Colorado at Boulder along with certifications in strength and conditioning, sports conditioning, Olympic weightlifting and kettlebell training. Good has recently been recognized by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) with the distinction of Registered Strength and Conditioning Coach Emeritus (RSCC*E) for demonstrating expertise and dedication in the field of strength and conditioning for more than 20 years.

Good and his wife, Amanda, reside in Franklin, Tenn.

ANDY HOSLER HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Andy Hosler enters his seventh season as the Head Athletic Trainer and 13th with the Nashville Predators organization in 2018-19. Hosler has been a certified athletic trainer for the last 15 years, 13 of which have been spent in professional hockey.

In his role as Head Athletic Trainer, Hosler manages the health and rehab of players throughout the Nashville organization. He served as Nashville's assistant athletic trainer for six seasons from 2007-13 before assuming the head role in the 2013-14 campaign.

Prior to joining the Predators, the Monroe, Mich. native spent two seasons as the Head Athletic Trainer for the ECHL's Utah Grizzlies. Hosler earned a master's degree in kinesiology at Michigan State University while serving as a graduate assistant, working with the Spartan wrestling and football teams during the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons. Hosler earned his bachelor's degree from Western Michigan University, working across the athletic department spectrum from gymnastics to football.

Hosler is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, licensed Athletic Trainer through the state of Tennessee and certified Level 1 Sports Performance Coach through USA Weightlifting. He also holds a membership through the Professional Hockey Athletic Trainer's Society.

Hosler and his wife, Elizabeth, reside in Franklin and have two sons, Henry and Fritz.

PETE ROGERS HEAD EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Pete Rogers enters his 22nd season as Head Equipment Manager of the Nashville Predators in 2019-20. He is responsible for the everyday equipment needs of all the players as well as coordinating the transfer of equipment to and from road games. Rogers also works with the NHL to ensure compliance with programs concerning equipment tracking, equipment safety, jersey authentication and on-ice exposure.

Rogers served as the equipment manager for the U.S. Men's National Team in his second Olympic Games at the 2014 Winter Olympics in Sochi after having first done so in Torino in 2006. He has also represented his country at six IIHF World Championships (1999-2002, 2005, 2013), most recently in Stockholm, Sweden and Helsinki, Finland in 2013 where Team USA earned a bronze medal. He's also served as the United States' equipment manager at the 2004 World Cup of Hockey and the 2004 Deutschland Cup in Germany.

Rogers continues to serve on the executive board of the Society of Professional Hockey Equipment Managers (SPHEM) after a six-year stint as president from 2012-18. Rogers worked his 2,000th professional game as an equipment manager in Nashville's 2014-15 regular-season finale on April 11, 2015 at Dallas. The "Original Predator" has been behind the bench for all 1,606 regular-season and 111 playoff games the team has played, including his 1,000th game with the Predators on November 12, 2011. Rogers was the Head Equipment Manager for the Eastern Conference All-Stars at the 2007 NHL All-Star Game in Dallas and handled all equipment logistics as the head equipment manager for the 2016 NHL All-Star Game in Nashville.

Prior to joining the Nashville organization in July 1998, the College at Brockport – SUNY graduate spent eight seasons as the equipment manager and director of team travel for the AHL's Rochester Americans. Rogers also spent nine seasons as an assistant equipment manager in Rochester before a one-year stint as head trainer with the ECHL's Hampton Roads Admirals in 1989-90.

Rogers and his wife, Judy, resident in Brentwood and have one daughter, Alexandra, and two dogs, Toby and Spencer.

BROADCASTERS

WILLY DAUNIC TV PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Willy Daunic his fifth season as the Predators television play-by-play broadcaster on game broadcasts on FOX Sports Tennessee, after spending two seasons in the radio play-by-play role. Prior to moving upstairs to play-by-play, Daunic had been the radio host of the team's pregame, intermission and postgame coverage for 13 seasons, beginning in Nashville's inaugural 1998-99 season.

In addition to his work with the Predators, Daunic has been hosting an afternoon sports talk show in Nashville since 1993 and joined the Predators' flagship station 102.5 The Game when it became an all-sports station in 2011.

Daunic has performed a wide variety of play-by-play and color duties on both radio and television in Nashville, including Vanderbilt University (football, baseball and basketball), Belmont University basketball, Nashville Sounds, TSSAA (Tennessee High School) State Championship games (football, baseball and basketball) and more.

A 1993 graduate of Vanderbilt University, Daunic lettered in two sports for the Commodores. Attending on a basketball scholarship, he played on the Commodores' 1990 NIT Championship team, as well as a team that reached the 1991 NCAA Tournament during his three seasons. Daunic also played four years of baseball at VU and was drafted by the Toronto Blue Jays in the 25th round of the 1993 MLB Draft, spending two seasons in their minor league system.

Daunic and his wife, Erin, reside in Nashville and have two children – daughter Evans (17) and son Mahoney (14). He is on Twitter at @WillyD1025.

CHRIS MASON TV COLOR ANALYST

Chris Mason enters his fifth season with the Nashville Predators broadcast team and third as the color analyst for FOX Sports Tennessee. Prior to his role in television, Mason worked as a color analyst for the Nashville Predators Radio Network in 2015-16.

Mason first joined the Predators on Oct. 5, 1998 when he was acquired via trade from the Anaheim Ducks. He went on to spend seven of the next eight seasons with the organization, splitting time between the Preds and the Milwaukee Admirals, the team's IHL/AHL affiliate. After four seasons spent with the St. Louis Blues, Atlanta Thrashers and Winnipeg Jets, Mason returned to Nashville as a free agent on July 1, 2012 and played 11 games for the team during the 2012-13 season. Throughout his career in Nashville, the Red Deer, Alta., native appeared in 135 games, recording 58 wins, a 2.61 goals-against average and a .913 save percentage.

On April 15, 2006, he became the ninth goalie in NHL history to score a goal.

He returned to Music City following two seasons playing in Europe – one with the Italy's Ritten-Renon and one with the Germany's Augsburg Panthers. He is an active member of the city's youth hockey landscape and helped foster the merger between the Nashville Jr. Predators and TPH Thunder AAA club. He also currently serves as the President of the Nashville Predators Alumni Association.

Mason and his wife, Courtney, reside in Brentwood and have three children – daughters Avery and Quinn, and son Fraser. He is on Twitter at @cmace30.

HAL GILL RADIO COLOR ANALYST

Hal Gill enters his third season on the Nashville Predators broadcast team as the radio color analyst.

A veteran of 1,108 NHL games, Gill won the Stanley Cup in 2009 with the Pittsburgh Penguins. He spent two seasons with the Predators, tallying five points in 55 games after making his team debut on Feb. 12, 2012. He closed out his NHL career in Philadelphia in 2013-14 and also skated for the Montreal Canadiens (2009-12), Penguins (2007-09), Toronto Maple Leafs (2006-08) and Boston Bruins (1997-04) during his 16-year career. Originally drafted in the eighth round (207th overall) by the Bruins in the 1993 NHL Draft, the Concord, Mass., native made his NHL debut with his hometown team on Oct. 17, 1997. Internationally, Gill helped the U.S. earn a bronze medal at the 2004 World Championship, one of the five times he competed in the event. Before turning pro, he played four seasons at Providence College, captaining the Friars during his senior campaign in 1996-97.

Gill and his wife, Anne, have three children – daughters Isabelle and Sophie, and son Talon. He is on Twitter at @Skillsy75.

PETE WEBER RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

The "Voice of the Predators" Pete Weber (Twitter: @petewebersports) begins his 22nd season as part of the Nashville Predators broadcast crew and his fifth working as the team's primary radio play-by-play announcer. In the last 21 seasons, Weber has missed just two games and has called 1,714 games for the club (1,604 regular season, 110 playoff).

His insights are called upon by local sport talk radio and television, and his writing is regularly featured on the team's website. In January 2017, Weber won his fifth Tennessee Sportscaster of the Year award from the newly-rebranded NSMA (National Sports Media Association), as voted by the National Association of Sportscasters and Sportswriters.

Weber has served the last 13 seasons as an "insider" on Sirius/XM's NHL Network Radio and served as co-host of Slapshot Radio from 2009-17.

In addition to his roles with the team, Weber served as co-host of SportsNight from 2003 through 2005, filled in as a host on ESPN Radio, called two Music City Bowl games and helped out on Nashville Sounds baseball broadcasts. He also produced and hosted two podcasts: "This Week in the Minor (Baseball) Leagues" and the syndicated "Southern Pro Football."

Weber's hockey experience includes three seasons (1978-81) as analyst on the Los Angeles Kings radio and telecasts, two seasons (1995-97) of radio play-by-play for the Buffalo Sabres and coverage of the U.S. hockey team at the 1984 Winter Olympics in Sarajevo, Yugoslavia, along with duties as host for Buffalo's cable and radio coverage. At the college level, he called games for his alma mater (University of Notre Dame) from 1974-76 and the University at Buffalo from 1976-78.

Outside of hockey, Weber spent 15 seasons in Triple AAA baseball with Albuquerque, Rochester and Buffalo, where he was inducted into the Buffalo Baseball Hall of Fame in 1999. He served one season as TV play-by-play for the NBA's Seattle SuperSonics and was part of the broadcast team for each of the Buffalo Bills' four Super Bowl appearances. On Sept. 28, 2017, he was inducted into the Buffalo Broadcasters Association Hall of Fame.

A regional Emmy award winner (2003, 2008, 2010, and 2016), Weber is on the Board of Governors for the Mid-South's chapter for the National Academy of TV Arts and Sciences. In addition, he serves on the Tennessee Radio Hall of Fame's Board of Directors.

Weber is a native of Galesburg, Ill., and holds two degrees from the University of Notre Dame. He and his wife, Claudia, reside in Nashville. He is on Twitter at @PeteWeberSports.

BRENT PETERSON BROADCAST ANALYST

A member of the Nashville Predators organization since Day 1, Brent Peterson enters his sixth season as a member of the Preds' radio broadcast team.

After spending his first 13 seasons with the franchise as a member of the team's coaching staff, Peterson spent 2011-14 as Hockey Operations Advisor, working closely with General Manager David Poile and the coaching staff in all matters involving the team, in addition to being active in the community and in sponsorship and business operations.

A tireless worker in the community, Peterson established the Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's (PFP) in 2007 to raise awareness of the devastating effects of Parkinson's disease. Since 2011, PFP has joined forces with the Nashville Predators to hold Petey's Preds Party – a fun night of live entertainment, dinner and an extensive silent auction – and the Nashville Predators/Brent Peterson Celebrity Golf Classic at Vanderbilt Legends Club. In its first seven years of existence, the combination Party and Golf Classic have raised more than $500,000 which was split between Parkinson's research and the Predators Foundation. Donations to PFP fund critical research to aid in the fight against the disease as well as educational and support groups.

During the 2011-12 season, Peterson brought his battle with Parkinson's into the public eye – including in-depth coverage of his Deep Brain Stimulation Surgery (DBS) – in an effort to create awareness and cultivate donations to the Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's. Since the DBS, Peterson is happy, healthy and has seen a reduction of his Parkinson's symptoms.

In his time behind the Predators bench as both associate coach (2003-11) and assistant coach (1998-2003), Peterson worked closely with the penalty-killing unit that has finished among the top 12 in the NHL in 10-of-12 seasons, and a defensive corps that gave up the second-fewest goals in his final season behind the bench (2010-11). He helped the club to Stanley Cup Playoff berths in six of his last seven seasons behind the bench and coached players such as Dan Hamhuis, Ryan Suter and Shea Weber.

Peterson joined the Predators after serving as head coach of the Portland Winterhawks (WHL) for seven seasons, posting a 201-138-20 mark. During the 1997-98 season, the Winterhawks were a league-best 53-14-5 and captured the WHL Championship and the Memorial Cup. He recorded 40-or-more victories on four occasions and helped develop NHL first-round picks Adam Deadmarsh (1993), Jason Wiemer (1994), Brenden Morrow (1997) and Marian Hossa (1997).

Prior to joining Portland, the Calgary, Alta., native spent two seasons (1989-91) as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers (NHL) following his retirement as a player. The former first-round pick of Detroit (1978) played 11 NHL seasons from 1978-89 with Detroit, Buffalo, Vancouver and Hartford. He appeared in 620 NHL games, collecting 213 points (72g-141a) and 484 penalty minutes. Peterson was known as one of the NHL's top defensive forwards and penalty killers.

Peterson and his wife, Tami, reside in Franklin and have three children – sons Ryan and Brad and daughter Kristin – and five grandchildren.

TERRY CRISP STUDIO ANALYST

Entering his 22nd year with the Predators, Terry Crisp provides analysis on the Predators during the club's television broadcasts. He regularly contributes insight to the Predators' website and has worked as a studio analyst for Canada's TSN during the 2000, 2002 and 2003 IIHF World Championships.

From the franchise's first season in 1998 until 2013-14, Crisp worked alongside Pete Weber, forming one of the most well-known broadcast duos in the League. A part of the Predators' Emmy-winning broadcasts in 2003, 2008 and 2010, Crisp served as a color analyst for FOX Sports during the 1998-99 season and during the 1998 and 1999 Stanley Cup Finals, and has served in a similar capacity for TSN in past years.

Crisp posted 201 points (67g-134a) in 536 games during his 11 seasons in the NHL as a player for the Boston Bruins, St. Louis Blues, New York Islanders and Philadelphia Flyers. He won three Stanley Cup Championships – two as a player with the Flyers (1974 and 1975) and one as a coach with Calgary (1989) – and he is one of only 14 people to have won the Cup as both player and head coach. The Parry Sound, Ont., native has a unique perspective on expansion teams: He was a player with the inaugural editions of the Blues in 1967 and the Islanders in 1972.

Crisp was the head coach of the Tampa Bay Lightning from the franchise's inception in 1992 through October 1997, coaching 391 games. He held the record for most games coached by an expansion franchise's first coach until Barry Trotz, then with the Nashville Predators, broke the mark in 2003. Crisp also served as the assistant coach of the silver medal-winning Canadian team at the 1992 Winter Olympic Games in Albertville, France.

Terry and his wife, Sheila, reside in Nashville. The Crisp's have three children – sons Tony and Jeff, and daughter Caley, and 10 grandchildren.

MARK HOWARD BROADCAST AND ENTERTAINMENT TEAM

Mark Howard enters his 11th season working with the Nashville Predators in the broadcast and entertainment department and has appeared in multiple roles. This season, Mark will host in-arena game breaks during pregame and intermissions, providing highlights and analysis.

Howard was part of Fox Sports Tennessee's Emmy award-winning broadcast of Game Five of the 2015 Western Conference Quarterfinal series against the Chicago Blackhawks and hosts the award-winning Wake-Up Zone on 104.5 The Zone which airs weekdays from 6-10 a.m. He also does a radio pre- and postgame show for Titans Radio and has worked as a television host of TSSAA for the State High School football and basketball championships since 2004.

Prior to hosting The Wake-Up Zone, Howard was a sports anchor at WTVF-TV (CBS) in Nashville and worked for 103.3 WKDF doing morning sports from 1997-2002. The West Hartford, Conn., native who also worked in television in Evansville, Ind., from 1983-86, has called action for Triple-A baseball in Wichita and Evansville, and college hockey at Cornell. He graduated from Ithaca College in upstate New York in 1980 with a degree in history and political science.

Mark has a 16-year-old son Jack.

LYNDSAY ROWLEY PREDATORS LIVE HOST

Lyndsay Rowley enters her sixth season with the Nashville Predators and third season as the pre- and postgame co-host for Predators LIVE! alongside Terry Crisp. Along with her home game duties, she will be hosting Predators LIVE! and reporting rinkside for all of the road games this season. Rowley spent three seasons as the rinkside reporter for all Predators' home games and select away games on FOX Sports Tennessee. Rowley works with the rest of the Predators broadcast crew to bring fans closer to the action through interviews, special features and more. Additionally, Rowley discusses the Preds routinely throughout the season on NHL Network.

Prior to joining the Predators broadcast team, Rowley spent time with the Rockland Boulders, an independent professional baseball team in Pomona, N.Y., working as a field correspondent for all live television broadcasts. In addition to her work with the Boulders, Rowley spent time with the Charlotte Bobcats (now Hornets) as an in-house television host and has been on the sidelines of college football, baseball and volleyball games for various broadcasters.

In 2012, Rowley covered the Columbus Blue Jackets for Columbus' NBC affiliate while also covering Ohio State football, basketball and baseball games and the USA Swimming 2012 Grand Prix.

A native of New Albany, Ohio, Rowley received her Bachelor's degree in communications at High Point University in High Point, N.C., where she was a four-year member of the Division I varsity volleyball team. Rowley earned her MBA while she was a graduate assistant volleyball coach at Ohio Dominican University in Columbus, Ohio.

Rowley enjoys sports, writing and traveling in her spare time.

KARA HAMMER RINKSIDE REPORTER

Kara Hammer enters her third season with the Nashville Predators broadcast team as its rinkside reporter.

Before joining the broadcast team, Hammer was a sports reporter for WKRN-TV in Nashville for two years and covered the Predators' historic run to the 2017 Stanley Cup Final. Prior to joining News 2, she served as the Tennessee Titans sideline reporter on NFL Network during preseason games and appeared weekly on the Titans' Coaches Show with Mike Mularkey.

Before moving to Nashville in 2015, Hammer spent three years with Fox Sports Arizona and NAU-TV working as a sideline reporter and color analyst starting in 2012. While there, she made history as part of the first all-female announcing team for a live event on FSAZ on Feb. 23, 2013. She began her career at KGWN in Cheyenne, Wy., in 2010.

Born and raised in Aurora, Colo., Hammer graduated from the University of Wyoming with a degree in Communications and Journalism. Hammer and her husband, Dustin, reside in Nashville during the season and spent much of their summers in Colorado.

FOX SPORTS TENNESSEE

The Nashville Predators and FOX Sports Tennessee are entering their 22nd season of partnership in 2019-20, with FOX Sports Tennessee reaching seven million households throughout Tennessee, Kentucky, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia.

Willy Daunic is returning as play-by-play announcer, his fifth season calling Predators action on FOX Sports Tennessee. Daunic is joined by former Predators goaltender Chris Mason, who will work his third full season as a color analyst. Lyndsay Rowley is in her sixth season with the team, serving as host of 'Predators Live' with broadcast veteran Terry Crisp, who continues as an analyst after spending the last 21 seasons with the Predators. Rowley will also serve as the rinkside reporter when the team is on the road. Kara Hammer returns for her third season as rinkside reporter for all Predators home games on FOX Sports Tennessee.

'Predators Live' returns with a pre- and postgame show for every FOX Sports Tennessee telecast featuring highlights, analysis and interviews. The show will originate from the FOX Sports Tennessee Zone at Bridgestone Arena for all home games.

All Predators games televised on FOX Sports Tennessee will also be available on FOX Sports GO (FOXSportsGo.com), a free app that provides live streaming video of more than 3,100 live events. It is currently available for iOS, Apple TV, Android, Android TV, Fire tablets and Fire phones, Roku players and Roku TV, select Windows devices, and online at FOXSportsGO.com. Fans can download the mobile app from the iTunes App Store, Google Play, Amazon App Store and Windows Store.

Predators fans can find exclusive content from FOX Sports Tennessee on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

The FOX Sports regional networks serving the Southeast – FOX Sports South, FOX Sports Carolinas, FOX Sports Tennessee and FOX Sports Southeast – collectively reach nearly 11 million households across seven states. They are the television home of the Atlanta Braves, Atlanta Dream, Atlanta Hawks, Atlanta United, Carolina Hurricanes, Charlotte Hornets, Memphis Grizzlies, Nashville Predators, Cincinnati Reds, Indiana Pacers, New Orleans Pelicans, St. Louis Cardinals, Bundesliga, Atlantic Coast Conference, Big 12 Conference and Big East Conference. Combined, the networks televise nearly 1,300 live events each year. The network's content is also available on FOX Sports GO, an app that provides live streaming video of FOX Sports content through programming distributers.

102.5 The Game

This season, the Predators and their ancillary programming continue to serve as the centerpiece of 102.5 The Game's all-sports format. Pete Weber, the "Voice of the Predators," enters his 22nd season behind the Predators play-by-play microphone. Joining Weber in the booth for his third season is former Preds defenseman Hal Gill as color analyst. Former Preds Associate Coach Brent Peterson continues with the radio network as a contributing analyst.

WPRT-FM, ESPN 102.5 The Game is Nashville's Best Sports Talk and sister station to ESPN 94.9 Game-2; heritage rock station, 102.9 The Buzz; 93.3 Classic Hits; and 102.1 The VILLE, the Soul of Music City. All stations are locally owned and operated as a part of the Nashville based Cromwell Group, Inc., which owns 32 stations total in Tennessee, Kentucky and Illinois. 102.5 The Game will carry all preseason, regular season and post season Predators games. These games will include an hour pregame show as well as an hour-long postgame show.

ARENA INFORMATION

BRIDGESTONE ARENA

Bridgestone Arena • 501 Broadway
(615) 770-2000 • Fax (615) 770-2010

Serving as the home for numerous national and international events, Bridgestone Arena has the distinction of being one of the busiest venues in the United States since the doors first opened in 1996, hosting more than 20 million guests during that time. Since 1998, the National Hockey League's Nashville Predators have been the primary tenants of Bridgestone Arena, which boasts one of the most unique game atmospheres in professional sports. Seating capacity is approximately 20,000 for concerts, 19,395 for basketball and 17,159 for Nashville Predators games.

Formerly known as the Nashville Arena, Gaylord Entertainment Center and Sommet Center, the building became Bridgestone Arena in 2010 after Bridgestone Americas Inc., which is headquartered in Nashville, entered into multi-year naming-rights and marketing partnership with the Predators and Powers Management.

Initiated by former Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen and approved by the Metro/Davidson County Council in 1993, Bridgestone Arena uniquely embraces Nashville's heritage as "Music City, U.S.A." The arena was designed as a tribute to Nashville's music roots, with the entrance positioned on the corner of Fifth Avenue and historic Broadway, facing the Ryman Auditorium – the original home of the Grand Ole Opry.

The one million-square-foot facility has also spurred downtown growth in the last 10 years, inspiring further development that includes the Country Music Hall of Fame, Frist Museum of the Visual Arts, Schermerhorn Symphony Center, multiple hotels, Encore Condominiums, Pinnacle at Symphony Place office building, Fifth + Broadway and the Downtown Public Library. According to the Nashville Downtown Partnership, there are over 295 dining options, 105 shopping options, 60 live music venues, 128 nightlife options and 25 art galleries in the downtown area, as of August 2019, with more businesses coming soon. In Fall 2017, Bridgestone Americas fully relocated its headquarters to a 30-story building two blocks from the arena.

A report issued in 2018 estimated that Bridgestone Arena and the Nashville Predators generate an annual economic impact of approximately $560 million. More than 3,800 jobs are supported annually by the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena. Nearly two-thirds of attendees at all Bridgestone Arena events come from outside of Davidson County, creating a pure economic impact to Davidson County in dollars spent by out-of-county visitors.

Furthermore, during the 2017 Stanley Cup Playoff run, it was estimated that during the four rounds, close to $2.7 million was generated for the city through ticket, merchandise and concessions sales taxes; the overall economic impact from a record 11 home playoff games (3 Stanley Cup Final, 3 Western Conference Final, 3 Second Round and 2 First Round) was over $50 million.

Bridgestone Arena also hosts a variety of non-traditional functions for Davidson County, the city of Nashville and local residents. Bridgestone Arena tower is home to the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, an XM Radio studio and the Nashville Convention and Visitors Bureau, which hosts more than 500,000 tourists annually. Bridgestone Arena features Patrón Platinum Club, a 260-seat fine-dining experience located on the building's suite level, which is open before and after games and concerts, and hosts a number of banquets and receptions. Recently added for 2019-20 is Hap & Harry's Tap Room, a brand-new suite located on the Gary Force Acura Club Level. With space to accommodate up to 50 people, a full-service bar, unlimited food and beverage, stage front sightlines for concerts and in-seat wait service, Hap & Harry's Tap Room provides an unmatched experience for large groups. Lexus Lounge, an exclusive Performers' Level Club that is home to the world's first convex curved 2mm LED wall offering a live panoramic view of the ice, features luxurious amenities such as personal concierge service, plush seating and special-themed buffets. Additionally, two Bunker Suites next to Lexus Lounge offer a private event viewing space that includes food and beverage and is a great corporate outing locale.

Continuously upgrading to improve the experience of every fan, guest, performer and athlete, Bridgestone Arena underwent over $8 million in renovations during the summer of 2019, bringing the total to over $80 million in renovations over the last several years.

The arena also houses more than 6,000 square feet of meeting room space and a 13,500-square-foot rehearsal hall that is available for rent and used more than 200 days a year by national touring acts. Metro's Registry of Deeds is also located inside the Bridgestone Arena.

The list of acts that have called Bridgestone Arena home is lengthy and includes the Country Music Association Awards; the Country Music Television Awards; Keith Urban's "We're All For the Hall" benefit concerts; NCAA, SEC and OVC Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments, the 2014 NCAA Women's Final Four; and entertainers such as Madonna, Garth Brooks, Paul McCartney, Elton John, Billy Joel, the Rolling Stones, KISS, Dave Matthews Band, Metallica, Taylor Swift, Justin Timberlake and Katy Perry. Bridgestone Arena is in the midst of hosting 12 consecutive SEC Basketball Championships (SEC Men's tournament: 2015-17, 2019-21, 2023-25, SEC Women's tournament: 2018, 2022, 2026). Four seasons ago, the arena hosted the 2016 NHL All Star games, putting on one of the most successful experiences in league history and paving the way for Bridgestone Arena to host the 2017 Stanley Cup Final.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS/
PREDATORS FOUNDATION

Established in 1998, the Nashville Predators Foundation presented by SmileDirectClub is devoted to funneling the excitement of professional sports towards the needs of the community by offering unique resources and financial support to local youth-oriented organizations. Since its inception, using funds generated by a variety of annual fundraising events, the Foundation has awarded $6.5 million in grants to 615 charitable organizations, including a record $675,000 during the 2019-20 season. Annually, the Foundation distributes over $2 million in funding to non-profits throughout Nashville and Middle Tennessee.

In August 2019, the Nashville Predators Foundation partnered with Nashville-based SmileDirectClub Through this partnership, the Nashville Predators Foundation will introduce new SuperGrants, which will be awarded to Middle Tennessee community organizations to complete large-scale projects in support of education, health, and cultural needs across the state. The grants will range from $25,000 to $100,000 and will be awarded to several Tennessee-based organizations to further the empowerment of youths and their families during times of transition.

FIRST TENNESSEE BRENT PETERSON CELEBRITY GOLF CLASSIC AND PETEY'S PREDS PARTY

The Nashville Predators Foundation and the Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's host the First Tennessee Nashville Predators Brent Peterson Celebrity Golf Classic and Petey's Preds Party each September. Petey's Preds Party gets the two-day event off to a great start over the ice at Bridgestone Arena and includes dinner and an auction, along with a comedy show. The golf tournament closes out the two-day event at Vanderbilt Legends Club. As part of the second Weekend of Giving, the 2019 First Tennessee Petey's Preds Party and Golf Classic helped raise $300,000 each and is split between the Nashville Predators Foundation presented by SmileDirectClub and Peterson Foundation for Parkinson's. NASHVILLE PREDATORS FISHING TOURNAMENT

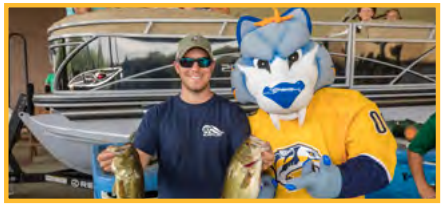
SPONSORED BY BASS PRO SHOPS AND GUY HARVEY



Fishing enthusiasts spent an afternoon on the water on Sept. 8, 2019 at Old Hickory Lake with the Nashville Predators Foundation at the annual Preds Fishing Tournament. This two-part event featured a welcome dinner and silent auction, with an early morning boat launch and weigh-in at Bass Pro Shops the following day. The event featured a silent auction with specialty Preds and fishing items as well as the opportunity to fish with select Preds players or pro fisherman. This year's event featured Preds forward Austin Watson along with pro fishermen Ott Defoe, Mike McClelland, Timmy Horton, Edwin Evers and David Walker. All proceeds from the event benefit the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Twice Daily. For more information please visit nashvillepredators.com/fishing.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS CRAFT BEER FESTIVAL

PRESENTED BY ORCA COOLERS

The Nashville Predators opened the doors of Bridgestone Arena in the heat of summer for the eighth straight year in 2019, welcoming beer lovers inside to sample beer from more than 80 different breweries at the Nashville Predators Craft Beer Festival presented by Allegiant. In addition to receiving unlimited tastings, attendees also received a commemorative glass. This summer's festival raised nearly $70,000. For the second time, Red Silo Brewery was voted by the guests as the favorite brewery during the 2019 festival. For more information, please visit nashvillepredators.com/beer.

PREDS & PINS

BY UNITEDHEALTHCARE, DECEMBER 5, 2019

The Nashville Predators Foundation will host its eighth annual Preds & Pins presented by UnitedHealthcare Bowling fundraiser at Hermitage Strike and Spare on December 5, 2019. This casual evening features two hours of bowling, a buffet and photo opportunities with Preds players, Gnash and local celebrities. Last year's event raised over $30,000 with all proceeds benefited the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt through the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Twice Daily. For more information, please visit nashvillepredators.com/bowling

WINE FESTIVAL & TASTING

First held in 2006, the Nashville Predators Foundation Wine Festival & Tasting presented by Deacon's New South takes place over the ice at Bridgestone Arena in the spring. Last season, the Festival raised more than $120,000 and featured samples of more than 220 wines, beers and liquors, many of which came from local Tennessee craftsmen. The event also included culinary delicacies from local restaurants, a complimentary Preds-branded glass and photo opportunities with Predators mascot Gnash. The event also featured a VIP dinner and tasting hosted by MollyDooker Wines in the Patron Platinum Club that included a five-course wine dinner with wine pairings. This year's festival will be held in April 2020, for more information, please visit nashvillepredators.com/wine.

PREDS & THREADS FASHION SHOW FEBRUARY 19, 2020

The Preds & Threads Fashion Show returns for the 2019-20 season! The 2017-18 fashion show was the first in Preds history and featured all the players on the team roster strutting their stuff down the runway in fashions provided by our friends at Dillards, The Mall at Green Hills, along with their significant others and children from local youth charities. Guests also enjoyed a cocktail hour before the show began with Preds coaches, broadcasters, and alumni while bidding on an extensive one-of-a-kind auction. For more information, please visit nashvillepredators.com/fashion

KABOOM! FALL 2019

The Nashville Predators Foundation will team up with KaBOOM! - a national nonprofit dedicated to bringing balanced and active play to all kids - to build a new playground in the Nashville area again in November of 2019. Volunteers from the Predators, other local organizations including BlueCare Tennessee, Hunt Brothers, LP Building Products, MAPCO, 102.5 The Game and the community work together to make the new playgrounds, designed by the children who will use it, in just one day! This year's build will take place at KIPP Nashville - Antioch College Prep Elementary and marks the eighth consecutive year that the Preds have partnered with KaBOOM! and the ninth playground that the Predators have built in Middle Tennessee (the organization built two in 2014).

HOCKEY FIGHTS CANCER NOV. 2, 2019 AND FEB. 22, 2020

Every season, the Nashville Predators host two Hockey Fights Cancer Nights (a league-wide initiative). These nights benefit the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Twice Daily at Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt and include donations collected at all main entrances and silent auctions that feature specialty jerseys worn by the players. Patients from the children's hospital attend the game, ride on the Zamboni, take part in a postgame meet-and-greet with players and participate in Zebra's Care, a charitable organization run by the NHL Officials Association.

DEX SCORE & WIN

During the 2018-19 season, every time a Preds player scored a goal or recorded a goaltending win, DEX Imaging and Mailing made a donation to the Predators Foundation through the DEX Score and Win program. Last season, the 14th season of the program, raised $32,800 for distribution to 10 Middle Tennessee charities. Since its inception in the 2005-06 season, the program has raised more than $421,000 for 67 charities.

GAME NIGHT AUCTION

The Predators Foundation hosts an auction in conjunction with every Nashville Predators home game online. Fans can text preds to 52182, enabling fans both at the game and across the world to bid and take home items in support of the Foundation. The online auction includes autographed merchandise from across the sports world, one-of-a-kind Predators items like holiday baskets stuffed with each players' favorite goodies, unique Tennessee souvenirs and more. Hockey fans can also view items up for auction during home games on the main concourse by Section 106/107.

MYSTERY PUCKS

In addition to the auction, the Foundation sells autographed pucks on select game nights through the "Mystery Pucks" fundraiser. At the game, fans have the opportunity to select a wrapped, themed puck autographed by a Predators player with select pucks specialized for buyers to receive an extra prize.

BIRTHDAY & SPECIAL MEGATRON MESSAGES

For a donation to the Predators Foundation, fans have an opportunity to put birthday, anniversary and engagement announcements on the Bridgestone Arena scoreboard during Predators home games. In-game scoreboard message rates are $50. To schedule, please visit NashvillePredators.com/scoreboard or contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

ZAMBONI RIDES/PRE-GAME VISIT TO THE PENALTY BOX

For a $100 donation to the Nashville Predators Foundation, Predators fans can ride the Zamboni or have the opportunity to sit in the visiting team's penalty box during the Nashville Predators' pregame skate. To schedule, please visit nashvillepredators.com/zamboniride or nashvillepredators.com/penaltybox, or contact Community Relations at (615) 770-2331.

DONATION REQUESTS

The Nashville Predators are committed to positively influencing the community far beyond the game. The team's community relations department assists non-profit charities and other businesses to raise money for their own causes. To request a non-monetary donation for your event, please visit nashvillepredators.com/donations.

GRANT RECIPIENTS

On May 2, 2019 the Nashville Predators Foundation distributed 150 grants totaling more than $675,000 to Nashville and Middle Tennessee-based community service and charitable organizations – the largest one-time allocation in team history. Each year, the Predators Foundation board selects four Feature Charities. These organizations receive exclusive opportunities throughout the season including in-arena drives, Predators participation in events, tickets to home games, recognition in team publications as well as other unique opportunities. The 2019-20 Feature Charities are AWAKE TN, Mental Health America, Nashville Dolphins and Read to Succeed.

GRANT APPLICATIONS

The Predators Foundation places priority on giving back to the local communities where its players, employees and fans live and work. Foundation grants range from $500 to a maximum of $10,000. Organizations must have a 501(c)3 status to apply. To request application information please email Krystin Fisher at kfisher@nashvillepredators.com.

JACK DILLER EDUCATION AWARD

Each season the Predators Foundation awards four high school seniors the Jack Diller Education Award in the amount of $2,500 each. Since inception, $122,500 has been given. Applicants must reside within Middle Tennessee and excel in academics, athletics and volunteerism. The four winning students are recognized during a Predators home game. For more information, please contact the Nashville Predators Foundation at (615) 770-2331 or visit nashvillepredators.com/dilleraward.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The Predators are committed to the underlying team mission to "work hard, play hard and provide outrageous customer and community service." Every member of the Predators organization can be found giving back to the community throughout the season – from ownership and players to management and staff – through our Hearts of Gold initiative. As a staff, the goal is to reach 8,000 volunteer hours each season.

This commitment to the community is seen through various initiatives. A few of the Predators' 2018-19 initiatives include food drives, blood drives, annual holiday toy drive, hospital visits, Thanksgiving turkey deliveries, a holiday party for kids and Hockey Fights Cancer awareness night.

OTHER INITIATIVES

Throughout the year, the Nashville Predators organize charitable drives to benefit the families of Nashville and Middle Tennessee, where fans are encouraged to bring donations.

365 PEDIATRIC CANCER FUND

Spearheaded by the leadership of former Preds captain Shea Weber and goaltender Pekka Rinne, the Nashville Predators Foundation formed the 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Twice Daily in 2014 (formerly the Nashville Predators Pediatric Cancer Research Fund), which goes to help fund pediatric cancer research at Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt. The Preds raise money for the 365 Fund through Hockey Fights Cancer games, silent and blind auctions, mystery pucks, fan donations and more. For more information about the 365 Fund, visit nashvillepredators.com/365fund.

PLAYERS' CHARITABLE INVOLVEMENT

Nashville Predators players, management, staff and Gnash gave more than 8,000 hours of community service during the 2018-19 season. Over the years, players have donated thousands of game tickets and have visited hundreds of non-profit organizations throughout the Middle Tennessee community. Several organizations have benefited from the Predators' charitable ticket initiatives.

COLTON SISSONS & AUSTIN WATSON – Charity Holiday Party
For a third season, Colton Sissons and Austin Watson are teaming up to host our annual Charity Holiday Party. Each Christmas, 70-80 youngsters and their parents are identified and adopted from local organizations and invited to Bridgestone Arena for a holiday meal, activity, pictures with Santa & Santa Gnash and receive presents that the players and Preds staff have purchased. Sissons and Watson not only help shop for the gifts but also hand them out with Santa & Santa Gnash.

NICK BONINO – Bones' Barracks
This season, Nick Bonino is again partnering with and enhancing the Ford Military Salute of the Game by inviting the honoree and his guests for a meet and greet outside the locker room with him, where Bonino presents them an autographed Preds jersey and they then enjoy dinner in the Patron Platinum Club donated by Levy Restaurants and are then recognized in-arena during the game.

FILIP FORSBERG – Make-A-Wish Middle Tennessee
In September, Ford Ice Center Antioch hosted the Filip Forsberg Hockey Clinic presented by Delta Dental of Tennessee that benefits Make-A-Wish Middle Tennessee. The clinic, which raised $25,000, attracted 100 youngsters, ages 7-14, for an afternoon of fun and learning. All proceeds from the clinic went to Make-A-Wish Middle Tennessee.

RYAN JOHANSEN – Youth Hockey
For select games this season, Ryan Johansen is donating his personal suite to be auctioned off to raise money to fund local youth hockey initiatives and various grants to enhance youth hockey programs in Middle Tennessee. Organizations that benefit from this donation include American Special Hockey Association, Hendersonville Inline Hockey Association, Nashville Elite Hockey Club, National Wheelcats, Scott Hamilton Skating Club, Youth Incorporated In-Line Hockey.

ROMAN JOSI – Best Buddies
Back for a third season, Roman Josi provides tickets for a different buddy pair from Best Buddies to attend the game. The pair participate in the high-five line before the game meeting players as they head to the ice. He also is donating his personal suite throughout the year to be auctioned off to raise additional funds for Best Buddies and will attend the organization's annual prom and gala.

PEKKA RINNE – 365 Fund presented by Twice Daily
The 365 Pediatric Cancer Fund presented by Twice Daily, which was started by Pekka Rinne and Shea Weber, presented a $470,000 check in October 2018 to help fund pediatric cancer research at Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt. As part of the fund, Rinne and Weber purchased two suites at Bridgestone Arena that accommodate 32 children and families from the Monroe Carell Jr. Children's Hospital at Vanderbilt for all Preds home games. A night in the suite includes food and beverages, knee hockey with a real goal light, 365 Fund t-shirts and postgame meet and greets with Rinne and his teammates.

KYLE TURRIS – Kyle's Crew
Kyle Turris invites families from different organizations that work with individuals with disabilities to Nashville Predators home games. These families enjoy the Preds game through seats purchased by Turris, receive Kyle's Crew shirts and participate in a postgame meet and greet with Turris and other Preds players.

The Nashville Predators continue their efforts to enhance the awareness and opportunity of youth hockey in Middle Tennessee. The Predators have created partnerships with local youth hockey associations and assist with fundraising, hockey education and additional ice time to promote the growth of the sport at the grassroots level.

The Nashville Predators also assist area youth hockey organizations by providing coaches and players clinics, ice time at Bridgestone Arena and funding for uniforms. Area youth players are also frequently featured during intermissions at Predators home games

STREET PRIDE

The NHL's League-wide street youth hockey program, NHL Street, serves local community centers and schools by providing this free athletic and educational program.

The NHL and the Nashville Predators provide street hockey sticks, pucks, nets and protective goalie equipment, including start-up hockey instruction for coaching and administration. The Predators also provide informative manuals for staff and participants, as well as follow-ups with program centers and player/coach clinics.

There are currently more than 40 youth facilities that participate in the Street Pride program including Boys & Girls Clubs throughout Middle Tennessee, Metro Parks and Recreation and the YMCA of Middle Tennessee. This free grassroots hockey development program emphasizes that all a child needs to play hockey are sneakers, breaking down any socio-economic barriers associated with the sport.

GET OUT AND LEARN! Presented by Erie Insurance

Get Out And Learn! (G.O.A.L!) presented by Erie Insurance program introduces the game of hockey to everyone, both young and old, without the financial commitment typically associated with the sport. This free, introductory program, designed for those with no prior experience, is offered in weekly sessions throughout the year at local rinks. The Predators provide all necessary equipment, ice time and instruction, making the program ideal for any family. The Preds are dedicated to supporting the development of youth hockey at all levels and recognize the need for local skating facilities to be accessible for beginners to help grow the sport, beginning at younger ages. Since its inception in the fall of 2006, more than 5,000 kids have graduated from G.O.A.L!

NASHVILLE PREDATORS KIDS CLUB
Presented by Delta Dental

The Nashville Predators Kids Club presented by Delta Dental provides an opportunity for kids and families alike to get involved with the team during the 2018-19 season. The Preds Kids Club is filled with exciting features, events, member benefits and more. Fans can sign up for Kids Club at the Youth Hockey table outside Section 108 during all Nashville Predators home games or at nashvillepredators.com/kidsclub.

TAKING HOCKEY TO THE STREETS

Taking Hockey to the Streets is a grassroots marketing initiative in which members of the Predators organization make unannounced visits to neighborhoods where kids routinely gather to play street hockey. The visit includes a street hockey game, giveaways for the young players and routine appearances by players, coaches and Preds mascot Gnash.

HOCKEY RULES

Hockey Rules is a free, traveling, interactive hockey experience that aims to educate elementary and middle school students on basic hockey skills and the Nashville Predators organization. During the school year, Hockey Rules visits more than 35 schools, reaching more than 5,000 students. The Predators provide all necessary equipment and instruction at no cost. The program continues into the summer as the Hockey Rules Summerfest Tour travels to youth camps, educating young fans on the sport of hockey.

BLUE CROSS BLUESHIELD BLUELINER OF THE GAME

An opportunity to experience the excitement from ice-level offered as a ticket package during Predators home games. Youth hockey players ages 7-14 get the opportunity of a lifetime as their name is called during the starting lineup; they skate to the blue line and then stand alongside their favorite Predators player during the National Anthem.

PREDATORS HOCKEY SCHOOL

The Predators host a hockey school each July at Ford Ice Center in Antioch, which is open to boys and girls ages 8 – 14. Youth attending the hockey school are challenged daily with more than two hours of ice time, intensive dry-land conditioning, video analysis and "chalk talk" sessions. Hockey School emphasizes the basic fundamentals of hockey – stickhandling, power skating, shooting and passing.

Other features of the camp include daily lectures on nutrition, injury prevention, equipment maintenance and perspectives from the Predators scouting and coaching staffs.

The Predators also host the Jr. Hockey School, an evening summer-time camp at Ford Ice Center in Antioch. The school is offered to children ages 4-7.

COACHING SYMPOSIUM

In an ongoing effort to foster and improve youth hockey opportunities in Middle Tennessee, the Nashville Predators offer support to youth hockey coaches at all levels. Annually, the Preds host a free Coaching Symposium featuring Nashville Predators coaching staff. Through their partnership with USA Hockey, the Predators are able to present tools that any coach can use to improve his or her knowledge, and in turn, the team's on-ice performance.

PREDATORS CUP

The Predators Cup is the annual Tennessee State High School Hockey Championship tournament. Established during the 1999-00 season, it serves as a platform to highlight the top high school hockey teams in the state and is hosted by the Nashville Predators each spring at Bridgestone Arena. Since the inaugural tournament, 14 teams from Middle Tennessee, three teams from Memphis and one team from Knoxville have won the Predators Cup.

SKATE AT BRIDGESTONE ARENA

Since the Predators inaugural season in 1998-99, thousands of youth hockey players have had the opportunity to skate on the same surface as NHL players. As a ticket fundraiser program, Mites on Ice is offered to hockey teams ages 9-and-under for the chance to skate in front of 17,000-plus fans during intermissions at select Predator home games.

There are several opportunities throughout the season for adults to skate on Bridgestone Arena ice. Rise and Grind Morning Hockey takes place in the early morning hours at Bridgestone Arena and gives adults (ages 18+) the opportunity to get a quick workout in before work. All levels are welcome and sessions are open to the first 26 skaters and four goalies. The cost is $20 per session and includes 60 minutes of ice, parking and breakfast. For more information or to reserve a spot, register at www.nashvillepredators.com/riseandgrind.

Pucks and Pints Happy Hour open hockey is in the midst of its fourth year at Bridgestone Arena. All levels are welcome, but participants must be at least 21 years of age and provide their own equipment. The cost is $20 per session and includes 60 minutes of ice and a complimentary "pint" at Pete and Terry's Tavern following the ice session. For more information, or to reserve a spot, register at www.nashvillepredators.com/pucksandpints.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS SELECT

The Nashville Predators Select Travel Hockey Program (Preds Select) will play under the Nashville Predators Amateur Hockey Association and aims to provide Middle Tennessee youth hockey players an environment to be better athletes, better individuals and better players with a commitment to positive, fun and progressive skill development through community and sport. Preds Select is the Nashville Predators official and first ever Travel Hockey program. They compete at the Tier II level and will offer teams in the 10U, 12U, and 14U age divisions for the 2019-20 season.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS JV PROGRAM

The Nashville Predators JV Program for the 2018-19 season aims to provide a supplement to our incredible Greater Nashville Scholastic Hockey League for those players looking to gain the experience for more ice time! Registered teams will use this program in order to help bolster the development of each player's respective school teams. The league began in 2017-18 with six teams and expanded to eight teams in 2018-19.

NPAHA ADULT HOCKEY LEAGUE

Adults can join in the fun of playing hockey with the Nashville Predators Amateur Hockey Association Adult Leagues. Whether you are a beginner who has just started the game, an experienced player or somewhere in between, Ford Ice Center has a league for you! Leagues run year-round (fall/winter, spring and summer) and include playoffs and championships. Our USA Hockey-sanctioned league hosts more than 700 adult players and offers competition for all level of play for adults ages 18 and over. We have grown from seven teams in 2014-15 to 54 teams across five divisions in the coming 2018-19 season.

NPAHA YOUTH HOUSE LEAGUE

This recreational league provides participants the opportunity to develop individual and team hockey skills in a fun, relaxed environment. Our goal is to not only develop a player's hockey skills, but to create an environment where youth can learn valuable life skills such as teamwork, good sportsmanship, a positive attitude and a good work ethic. The emphasis of the programming – whether learning how to stop or perfecting the wrist shot – will be on being "better than before." Continuous improvement will be a theme utilized throughout much of our programming, executed in a measurable and meaningful way. Our league is offered year-round and consists of more than 400 young hockey players fielding teams in the following age divisions: Termite (6U), Mite (8U), Squirt (10U), Peewee (12U), Bantam/Midget (13+). In 2017-18, we had 1,135 players play within our House League across our Fall, Winter, Spring and Summer seasons.

LITTLE PREDS LEARN TO PLAY

Beginning in fall of 2016, the organization launched a new initiative. Little Preds Learn to Play, which is partially funded by the NHL and NHLPA's Industry Growth Fund, is a multi-year, multi-city endeavor by the Nashville Predators and participating ice rinks in an effort to reduce cost barriers associated with an introductory program. Each session runs for six to eight weeks consecutively and is designed for boys and girls ages 4-9 who have never played hockey. Starting at just $85 (costs vary from rink to rink), participants get weekly on-ice instruction and are outfitted from head to toe with all the necessary hockey equipment to begin playing and is theirs to keep!

PREDS FITNESS CHALLENGE

Launched in the winter of 2015, Preds Fitness Challenge is aninitiative designed to fit within the current P.E. curriculum and aims to keep children active and encourage them to make healthy choices. The Challenge requires students to complete five challenges centered on staying active, choosing healthy eating habits, and an introduction to street hockey throughout the school year. Schools receive a Welcome DVD with Preds Strength Coach, 60 sticks/ball, pop-up nets, fitness wall charts, bracelets and charms to track student progress, a nutrition worksheet and teacher manual. The program launched with a Teach the Teacher event at Bridgestone Arena to watch morning skate followed by street hockey instruction. All fifth-grade students invited to a field trip at Ford Ice Center for Hockey 101 and free public skate. In the first year, PFC reached 22,000 students in 50 elementary schools. Preds Fitness Challenge reached 270 schools and 127,000 students last season.

FUTURE GOALS/HOCKEY SCHOLAR POWERED BY EVERFI

The Future Goals – Hockey Scholar™ online course is a unique tool that leverages the exciting game of hockey to teach science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) concepts to students in grades 4-8. This course, aligned to state science and math standards, also introduces students to STEM careers in hockey. This free program for educators has an annual reach of over 435 participating schools, and more than 29,000 students involved in the digital platform.

GO SKATE!

Go Skate! is a free Learn to Skate program proudly presented by the Scott Hamilton Skating Academy, Ford Ice Center, Nashville Predators and the Industry Growth Fund. This unique program encourages first-time skaters between the ages of 5-12 to learn to ice skate in a fun and encouraging environment, at no cost. The program includes a free seven-week session of Scott Hamilton Skating Academy's Learn to Skate classes with a FREE pair of hockey or figure skates at graduation, as well as a $45 discount off athletes second session of Learn to Skate. The program launched in 2016 and has granted over 1,300 skaters with free classes and skates, removing economical barriers, making skating accessible for first time youth to give skating a try! Go Skate! is currently being offered in Pelham, Ala., Huntsville, Ala., Knoxville, Tenn., Memphis, Tenn., Evansville, Ind., and Alpharetta, Ga., with expansion to four more regionals cities soon! Magic happens when the steel hits the ice!

KARL TAYLOR HEAD COACH

Karl Taylor enters his second season as Head Coach of the Milwaukee Admirals in 2019-20.

In 2018-19, his first season behind the Admirals bench, Taylor led the club to the AHL's Calder Cup Playoffs for the first time since 2017 and 15th time in franchise history. The Admirals finished with a 36-24-14-2 (88 points) regular-season record en route to a second-place finish in the Central Division, the team's highest divisional standing since the 2015-16 season. Under Taylor's tutelage, Anthony Richard and Colin Blackwell made their NHL debuts with the Predators and defenseman Matt Donovan – spurned by an 11-goal, 35-point season – earned an NHL call-up for the first time in four seasons. Additionally, six players established AHL career highs in points and Milwaukee allowed 207 goals, the eighth-fewest in the AHL.

Before joining the organization, the 47-year-old North Bay, Ont., native spent four seasons with the AHL's Texas Stars as an assistant coach. In Texas, Taylor's teams went a combined 152-108-30-14 and made the playoffs in three of his four seasons. His tenure was headlined by the Stars' appearance in last season's Calder Cup Finals, where they came one game from claiming the AHL title, falling to the Toronto Marlies in Game 7. With Taylor behind the bench, Texas earned at least 90 points in three seasons, including the 2017-18 season's 90-point effort (38-24-8-6) that culminated with the AHL's Western Conference Championship.

Taylor also spent one season as an assistant coach for the Western Hockey League's Portland Winterhawks in 2013-14, where they finished second in the WHL's regular-season standings with 113 points (54-13-5 record). Taylor helped guide the Winterhawks to the WHL Finals as the 2014 WHL Western Conference Champions, where they fell to the Edmonton Oil Kings in seven games.

Before jumping to the WHL, Taylor served as an assistant coach with the AHL's Chicago Wolves in 2011-12 where they won the regular season division and was a head coach in the ECHL for six seasons from 2005-11. He was at the helm of the Reading Royals from 2005-08, making the playoffs in two of his three campaigns, amassing a 112-82-22 record in the process. Taylor then became the first head coach of the ECHL's Ontario Reign from 2008-11, leading them to the playoffs in their inaugural season. He finished second in the John Brophy Award voting for ECHL coach of the year in 2008-09.

Taylor played three seasons in the Ontario Hockey League with the Windsor Spitfires, London Knights and North Bay Centennials, tallying 35 points (16g-19a) in 137 games from 1988-91. Following his junior career, he played for the University of New Brunswick from 1991-95, serving as an alternate captain in his final three seasons. Taylor also spent time as a head coach at Red Deer College in Alberta and the University of Waterloo before landing his first professional coaching job.

Taylor and his wife, Bev, reside in Milwaukee, Wis., with their son Mac and daughter Kate.

SCOTT FORD ASSISTANT COACH

Scott Ford enters his fifth season as an assistant coach for the Milwaukee Admirals in 2019-20 after helping to guide the Admirals to the AHL's Calder Cup Playoffs in 2018-19. Ford will work alongside Admirals Head Coach Karl Taylor and Assistant Coach Greg Rallo.

Ford finished a distinguished 11-year playing career in 2014-15, splitting time with the Admirals and the South Carolina Stingrays. He skated in 12 games with Milwaukee, posting a pair of assists and 14 penalty minutes.

The Brown University alum helped the Stingrays to an ECHL-record 23-game winning streak and a berth in the Kelly Cup Final.

Overall, Ford spent parts of seven seasons with the Admirals, including two as team captain, and his 378 games played are the second-most in club AHL history. The Fort St. John, B.C., native posted 14 goals and 31 assists for 45 points, a +37 rating and 577 penalty minutes, the second-most in Milwaukee's AHL history. Ford is one of just two defensemen since 2004 to finish the season with a +20 rating or better (+24 in 2011-12).

GREG RALLO ASSISTANT COACH

Greg Rallo enters his second season as an assistant coach for the Milwaukee Admirals in 2019-20. The 37-year-old native of Gurnee, Ill., played 12 seasons of professional hockey from 2005-17 that included stops in the NHL, AHL, ECHL and the German professional league.

Rallo competed in 11 NHL games with the Florida Panthers from 2011-13 and scored his first career NHL goal on April 2, 2013, against the Tampa Bay Lightning. In 615 career AHL contests, Rallo compiled 165 goals and 177 assists for 342 points, including a career-high 54 (26g-28a) with Texas in 2010-11. His AHL career featured stints with six different clubs and saw him captain the San Antonio Rampage in 2013-14 and serve as an alternate captain for the Stars in 2015-16. Rallo also won the 2007 Kelly Cup as ECHL champion with the Idaho Steelheads, where he had 31 points (13g-18a) in 37 games.

Prior to his professional career, Rallo played four seasons for Ferris State University in the Central Collegiate Hockey Association from 2002-06, where he had 108 points (46g-62a) in 152 games. He also produced 1.30 points per game in junior hockey as a member of the North American Hockey League's Springfield Jr. Blues from 2000-02.

Rallo and his wife, Liana, have two daughters, Avery and Addison, and a son, Ryder.

CENTER

PHILIP TOMASINO

(FIHL-ihp TAW-muh-SEE-NO)

Shot: Right • 6-0, 181 lbs
Born: Mississauga, Ont. (July 28, 2001)
Nashville's first choice, 24th overall (first round), in the 2019 NHL Draft

CAREER NOTES: Will play for the OHL's Niagara IceDogs in 2019-20... Tallied 72 points (34g-38a) in 67 games with Niagara in 2018-19... It was a 48-point and 29-goal improvement - the latter of which the highest in the entire CHL - compared to his rookie OHL campaign in 2017-18... Led the OHL in game-winning goals (12)... Was fourth on the IceDogs in goals... Had four goals and seven points in 11 playoff games... Represented Canada at the 2019 U-18 Championship and had five points (1g-4a) in six games... Recorded 24 points (5g-19a) in his rookie OHL season with Niagara in 2017-18... Competed on Team Canada Black at the 2017 World U-17 Challenge... Product of the Mississauga Rebels youth hockey program.

SCOUTING REPORT: Extremely versatile and offensive center... Great hands... Plays with pace, drive and feel... Executes creative plays... Will continue to get better quickly with age and experience.

QUOTEBOOK: "He's a really dynamic player. He attacks, plays with high-end speed and has real good instincts with and without the puck. He's a top-six forward, we feel. He has a great personality and will fit in well as time goes on." - Predators Chief Amateur Scout Tom Nolan

Shot: Left • 6-4, 201 lbs
Born: Tver, Russia (January 23, 2001)
Nashville's second choice, 45th overall (second round), in the 2019 NHL Draft

CAREER NOTES: Will play for the OHL's Windsor Spitfires in 2019-20... Led the USHL's Muskegon Lumberjacks in goals (27), assists (35) and points (62) in 2018-19... Finished 10th in the USHL and points... His +24 plus-minus was the sixth-highest among USHL forwards... Competed in the 2019 USHL/NHL Top Prospects Game... Tallied 14 points (6g-8a) in 45 games with Muskegon in 2017-18, his rookie USHL campaign... Represented Russia at the 2017 World U-17 Challenge and had two goals and five points in five games... Skated for the Little Caesars U-16 squad in Detroit in 2016-17.

SCOUTING REPORT: Big, fast, offensive forward... Shoot-first mentality with a great release... Strong, but soft hands... Protects the puck well... Competes all over the ice and uses his physicality.

QUOTEBOOK: "He's a big, strong, skilled offensive forward. He can protect the puck well and is strong on the boards and in the corners. I'd say he's more of a shooter than a playmaker, but he's hard to play against. I think he's a top-six forward and will be a productive player at the NHL level." - Predators North American Scout David Westby

2018-19

PREDS GO BACK-TO-BACK IN THE CENTRAL

- The Nashville Predators claimed the Central Division for the second consecutive season, finishing 2018-19 with 100 points and a 47-29-6 record.
- It is the second division title in franchise history, and the Preds became the first team in 10 years to win the Central in back-to-back seasons.
- Nashville reached the 100-point mark for the seventh time in franchise history and second consecutive season.
- The Preds won at least 40 games for the fifth consecutive season and 12th time in franchise history.

X - NASHVILLE PREDATORS

- The Preds clinched their fifth consecutive playoff berth with a 1-0 victory over the Wild on March 25.
- It was the 12th playoff appearance in the franchise's 21-season history.
- Nashville is one of three teams to make the playoffs in each of the last five seasons, joining Pittsburgh (13) and Washington (5).
- The Preds have made 12 trips to the postseason since the 2003-04 campaign (Nashville's first playoff berth) and are one of four teams to do so, joining San Jose (14), Pittsburgh (13) and Detroit (12).

ARVIDSSON SETS FRANCHISE GOALS RECORD

- Viktor Arvidsson set the Predators' franchise record for goals in a single season with 34, one more than the 33 scored by Jason Arnott in 2008-09 and Filip Forsberg in 2015-16.
- He joined Filip Forsberg as the only players in franchise history to tally multiple 30-goal seasons.
- It was the fewest individual games required (49) to hit the 30-goal mark in franchise history.
- He also set the franchise record for even-strength goals in a season with 29, two more than James Neal's 27 in 2015-16.
- He is the third player in Preds franchise history to record at least three 25-goal seasons, joining Filip Forsberg (4) and Arnott (3).
- He moved into a tie for second with David Legwand on the team's all-time shorthanded goals list with 10. He's one behind Greg Johnson (11) for a tie of the franchise record.
- Arvidsson set the Preds record for goals per game in a season and was third in the NHL at .59.
- From Dec. 27 – when he returned from a broken thumb – to the end of the regular season, he scored the third-most goals in the NHL with 26, behind only Leon Draisaitl's 33 and Patrick Kane's 27.

NORRIS WORTHY SEASON FOR JOSI

- Roman Josi matched his career high in goals with 15 this season, the seventh-most among NHL blueliners.
- He is one of four active NHL defensemen to score at least 10 goals in each of his last six seasons (also: Oliver Ekman-Larsson, Mark Giordano and Brent Burns).
- Josi posted 56 points (15g-41a) in 82 games this season, becoming the first defenseman in Predators franchise history to record four seasons with at least 50 points. It was his fourth career season with at least 50 points and third with at least 40 assists. He was five points shy of matching his career high of 61, set in 2015-16.
- Among League blueliners, Josi was seventh in goals (15), tied for eighth in points (56) and tied for 12th in assists (41).
- Josi was second among defensemen and 13th in the NHL in shots this season with 274.
- Josi averaged 25:10 of ice time, the fifth-most in the NHL. He was one of three NHL defensemen (Kris Letang, Brent Burns) to have at least 15 goals, 55 points and 25 minutes of average ice time.

FINLAND'S FINEST

- Pekka Rinne finished the 2018-19 season with a 30-19-4 record, hitting the 30-win mark eighth time in his career and fifth consecutive season. It's tied for the longest active such streak in the NHL, joining Devan Dubnyk and Braden Holtby.
- Among the 19 goalies who played at least 50 games, the 2018 Vezina Trophy winner was third in goals-against average (2.42), tied for fourth in save percentage (.918) and 10th in wins (30).
- He allowed two-or-fewer goals in 31 of his 56 appearances (55.4 percent).
- Rinne closed out the regular season by being named the NHL's Second Star of the Week on April 7 after going 3-0-0 with a 2.01 goals-against average and .935 save percentage from April 2-6.
- Rinne moved into 22nd on the NHL's all-time wins list this season. His career record sits at 341-187-70 in 623 games played, tied with Miikka Kiprusoff for the second-most appearances by a Finnish-born goalie in League history.
- He became the winningest Finnish-born goaltender in NHL history with his 320th victory on Nov. 21 vs. St. Louis, passing Kiprusoff.
- Rinne moved into sole possession of 22nd on the NHL's all-time shutout list after recording his 55th on March 19 vs. Toronto. He picked up four shutouts in 2018-19, marking the ninth time in his career he's hit that mark in a season.
- Among active goaltenders, Rinne is fourth in shutouts (55) and fifth in wins (341).

JOHANSEN HITS 50 ASSISTS

- Ryan Johansen tallied a career-high 50 assists this season, joining Paul Kariya as the only players in team history to do so. He bested his previous career high of 47, which he set in 2016-17.
- He also established the Preds franchise record for most assists in a season by a center (50) and was four shy of matching Kariya's overall assist record of 54 set in 2005-06.
- His 64 points (14g-50a) were the second-most in his career (71 in 2014-15 with Columbus) and his most since being acquired by the Predators during the 2015-16 season.
- Johansen was 16th among NHL centers in assists this season.
- He closed out the regular season with 10 points (3g-7a) in his final 13 games, including three game-winning goals and two game-deciding goals in the shootout.

FANTASTIC FIL

- Filip Forsberg scored 28 goals this season, the third time in his career he's tallied at least that many.
- He became the only player in team history to score 25 goals in five different seasons.
- His .44 goals per game were a career high and the second-most on the Preds behind Viktor Arvidsson.
- Forsberg notched his franchise-high sixth career hat trick on Oct. 27 vs. Edmonton.
- Despite missing 18 games with an upper-body injury, he tied Vancouver's Elias Pettersson for the fourth-most goals among Swedish-born payers this season with 28.
- Since the start of the 2014-15 season, Forsberg leads all Swedish-born players in goals scored with 144, 24 more than second-place Gabriel Landeskog (120). He is third among Swedes in points in that time frame with 299 (144g-155a) – only Nicklas Backstrom (379) and Erik Karlsson (326) have more.

SPECTACULAR SAROS

- Juuse Saros established a career high in games played (31) and starts (27) this season, going 17-10-2 with a 2.62 goals against average and .915 save percentage.
- From Jan. 1 on, Saros was tied for fifth among goalies (min. 15 games played) in save percentage (.930) and tied for eighth in goals-against average (2.26).
- Saros allowed one-or-fewer goals in seven of his last 16 appearances dating back to Jan. 1.
- He recorded his third shutout of the season on March 25 at Minnesota, matching his career high set in 2017-18. He has earned a shutout in 10 percent (seven) of his 70 career starts since making his NHL debut in 2015-16.
- Saros made a career-high 47 saves in Nashville's 2-1 victory at Vegas on Jan. 23.

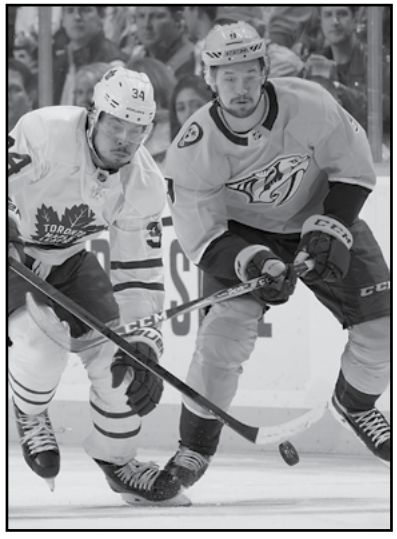
BLUELINE POWER

- Predators defensemen tallied 197 points (43g-154a) this season, the fourth-most in the NHL.
- Since the beginning of the 2016-17 regular season, the Predators have posted the second-most points by NHL defensemen with 584 (144g-440a).
- Roman Josi (158) is eighth in points by NHL defensemen since the 2016-17 season. He is sixth in goals (41) by League blueliners in that time frame.

- Mattias Ekholm established career highs in points (44) and assists (36) in 2018-19. He recorded a five-game point streak from Jan. 4-7 – tied for his career best – in which he posted three goals and six assists. He also became the third blueliner in Predators history to record four consecutive team games with multiple points (Jan. 5-10), joining Roman Josi in 2016- 17 (2g-6a) and Kimmo Timonen (3g-5a).
- Ellis set career highs in points (41) and assists (34) this season.

BEASTS AGAINST THE EAST

- The Predators went 20-8-4 against Eastern Conference opponents this season, tied for the second-most wins by a Western Conference team against the East.
- Nashville won each of its first 10 games against Eastern Conference teams, becoming the second team since conferences were introduced in 1974-75 to do so (also: Toronto, 12-0-0 in 1977-78). Per NHL PR, the Preds are the first Western Conference team to accomplish the feat in League history.
- The Preds averaged 3.1 goals per game against the East and held Eastern foes to two-or-fewer goals in 19 of 32 such contests.
- Nashville achieved season-series sweeps of four Eastern Conference playoff teams: Tampa Bay, Toronto, Washington and the NY Islanders.



ROAD WARRIORS

- After becoming the third team in NHL history to win each of its first eight or more road games in a season, Nashville went 22-15-4 away from home, tied for the fourth-most road wins in team history.
- Nashville's eight-game road winning streak from Oct. 4-Nov. 10 was a franchise record.
- The Preds scored at least three goals in 33 of their 41 road games (80.5 percent) and allowed the sixth-fewest goals-against per game (2.73) on road ice.
- Nashville's 118 road goals were the third-most in franchise history.

2018-19
TEAM NOTES

STRONG PK

- Nashville's penalty kill was sixth in the NHL at 82.1 percent, the team's best output since the 2011-12 season (83.6 percent).
- The Preds did not allow a power-play goal in 46 of their 82 games (56 percent). Their 45 power-play goals against were tied for the fourth-fewest in franchise history.
- Nashville's PK did not allow a power-play goal in 10 consecutive games from March 12-April 2, a franchise record.
- Nashville recorded 686 penalty minutes, the second-fewest in team history.
- Ryan Ellis averaged the most shorthanded minutes on the team (2:40). Ellis, Roman Josi (2:35) and Mattias Ekholm (2:13) each skated more than two minutes on the penalty kill per game, the only three Preds players to do so.

HAT TRICK PALOOZA

- The Predators established a franchise record for most hat tricks in a single season with five in 2018-19: Viktor Arvidsson (Jan. 15 vs. Washington), Austin Watson (Nov. 25 vs. Anaheim), Calle Jarnkrok (Nov. 17 vs. Los Angeles), Colton Sissons (Nov. 7 at Colorado) and Filip Forsberg (Oct. 27 vs. Edmonton).
- Nashville tied for fourth in the League in hat tricks and was one of six teams (Montreal, Pittsburgh, San Jose, St. Louis and Washington) to have at least five different players record one this season.

SMASHVILLE ALL-STARS

- Pekka Rinne (fourth selection) and Roman Josi (second selection) represented the Predators at the 2019 NHL All-Star Weekend in San Jose on Jan. 25-26.
- Rinne made 14 total saves in the two games and stopped eight of nine in the Central Division's 10-4 victory in the first contest against the Pacific Division.
- Josi tallied six total points (1g-5a), including two (2a) in the championship game, as the Central fell to the Metropolitan Division, 10-5.

PLAYOFF VETERANS

- The Nashville Predators qualified for the Stanley Cup Playoffs for the fifth consecutive season, the longest streak in franchise history. It was the team's 12th playoff appearance in its 21-season history.
- Nashville is one of three teams to make the playoffs in each of the last five seasons, joining Pittsburgh (13) and Washington (5).
- The Preds have made 12 trips to the postseason since the 2003-04 campaign (Nashville's first playoff berth) and are one of four teams to so, joining San Jose (14), Pittsburgh (13) and Detroit (12).

ROCCO'S WORLD

- After notching a career-best five goals in 53 regular-season games, Rocco Grimaldi led the Predators in goals during the playoffs with three in five contests.
- He accounted for three of Nashville's 12 goals (25 percent) and was the only Preds forward to find the back of the net multiple times.
- Among the 64 players who scored at least three goals during the playoffs, Grimaldi averaged the fifth-lowest time on ice (12:59).

PLAYOFF PEKKA

- Pekka Rinne pushed his consecutive playoff starts streak to 89 games and moved his career postseason record to 45-44, the seventh-most victories among active goaltenders.
- Rinne tied Tony Esposito for 25th place on the NHL's all-time playoff wins list. Only three goaltenders born outside of North America have recorded more postseason wins than Rinne: Dominik Hasek (65), Henrik Lundqvist (61) and Tuukka Rask (50).
- The Finnish-born goaltender made 49 saves in Game 6 at Dallas, a playoff career best.

OVERTIMES HEROICS

- Nashville is now 8-9 all-time in playoff overtime games, including a 5-4 mark at Bridgestone Arena, after Craig Smith's game-winner in Game 2.
- It was Smith's first career playoff overtime goal. Smith joined Jerred Smithson (4/22/11 vs. Anaheim), Matt Halischuk (4/30/11 vs. Vancouver), Mike Fisher (5/5/16 vs. San Jose), Viktor Arvidsson (5/9/16 vs. San Jose), Kevin Fiala (twice: 4/17/17 vs. Chicago and 4/29/18 vs. Winnipeg) and James Neal (5/12/17 vs. Anaheim) as the only players in Preds history to score an overtime playoff goal.
- It was Smith's third career game-winning goal in the playoffs, tied with Arvidsson, Neal and David Legwand for the most in team history.

PREDS PLAYOFF LEADERS

- Filip Forsberg extended his franchise lead in playoff points to 44 (23g-21a) after tallying a goal and an assist vs. Dallas. His 23 career playoff goals is also a franchise best.
- With a team-high four points (2g-2a), Roman Josi became the franchise's all-time leader in playoff points by a defenseman with 32 (10g-22a). He also moved into a tie for seventh on the team's all-time playoff goals list with 10.
- Ryan Ellis became the franchise's all-time playoff assists leader with 25, passing Ryan Johansen (24).

QUICK HITS

- It was Nashville's first-ever playoff series against Dallas.
  Sixteen of the 20 Preds skaters to play in the postseason recorded at least one point against Dallas.
- Nine different players tallied a goal for Nashville, led by Grimaldi's three and Roman Josi's two. The Preds also received assists from 14 different players; Ryan Ellis led the way with three.

- WESTERN CONFERENCE FIRST ROUND -

GAME ONE

Nashville vs. Dallas (3-2 L) – April 10 – Bridgestone Arena

P.K. Subban scored late, but the Predators were unable to complete the comeback as they fell in Game 1 to the Dallas Stars, 3-2, at Bridgestone Arena. The result gave the Stars a 1-0 series lead in the first-ever postseason meeting between the two clubs. Nashville started how they wanted from the opening puck drop, with Roman Josi beating Ben Bishop by cutting to the slot and depositing a backhand for a 1-0 lead after 20 minutes. Goals from Dallas' Miro Heiskanen, Alexander Radulov and Mats Zuccarello gave the Stars the edge in the third period with less than 10 minutes to play in regulation. Subban got the crowd and his team back into things when his snapped a shot into the twine at 13:24, but that was as close as the Preds came to forcing overtime.

GAME TWO

Nashville vs. Dallas (2-1 OTW) – April 13 – Bridgestone Arena

Craig Smith notched his first career overtime goal exactly five minutes into the extra session to tie the series at 1-1 and give Nashville a 2-1 victory on home ice. It was Smith's third career game-winning goal in the playoffs, tied for the most in Preds postseason history with Viktor Arvidsson, James Neal and David Legwand. After a scoreless opening period, it was Dallas who got the game's first goal less than two minutes into the second frame courtesy of Jamie Benn. Less than two minutes later, Rocco Grimaldi scored his first career playoff goal to help force overtime, where Smith beat Ben Bishop with a shot from the bottom of the left circle. The Preds improved to 5-4 in postseason overtime games at Bridgestone Arena with the victory.

GAME THREE

Nashville at Dallas (3-2 W) – April 15 – American Airlines Center

Thanks to goals from Rocco Grimaldi, Filip Forsberg and Mikael Granlund, and clutch saves from Pekka Rinne, the Preds took a 2-1 series lead after a 3-2 victory on the road in Dallas in Game 3. Just as he did in Game 2, Grimaldi scored the first goal for the Predators when a wrister from the right side found its way past Ben Bishop for a 1-0 lead. Shortly after Rinne and the Preds killed a one minute, 29-second 5-on-3 advantage for the Stars, Forsberg tallied his first of the playoffs. The Stars answered back before the end of the second, and tied the game midway through the third period, but Granlund's first of the playoffs at 11:41 broke the deadlock and gave the Preds the road win.

GAME FOUR

Nashville at Dallas (5-1 L) – April 17 – American Airlines Center

Four goals from the Stars in the first period, followed by another in the second, propelled Dallas to a 5-1 victory over the Preds in Game 4 as the series shifted back to Nashville. Three of Dallas's four goals in the opening frame came on the power play, and although the Preds settled things down in the final 40 minutes with Roman Josi getting the Preds on the board in the third, the early returns were too much to overcome. Roope Hintz, Alexander Radulov, Andrew Cogliano and Mats Zuccarello all tallied for the Stars in the opening 20 minutes, and Hintz added his goal in the middle frame.

GAME FIVE

Nashville vs. Dallas (5-3 L) – April 20 – Bridgestone Arena

The Preds got the first goal in Game 5, but Dallas scored five for the second consecutive contest in a 5-3 victory at Bridgestone Arena to take a 3-2 series lead. Rocco Grimaldi got the home team on the board just over six minutes into the game with his team-leading third of the postseason, but Dallas evened the score at 13:08 of the first with a strike from Jason Dickinson. Ryan Johansen and Kyle Turris found the back of the net for their first goals of the playoffs, but Dallas' three second-period goals gave them the advantage heading into Game 6.

GAME SIX

Nashville at Dallas (2-1 OTL) – April 22 – American Airlines Center

Nashville's season came to an end with a 2-1 overtime loss against Dallas on the road in Game 6. John Klingberg ended the game and the series at 17:02 of the first overtime, putting the Stars past the Preds with a 4-2 series win. The opening period saw the Predators take a 1-0 lead when Austin Watson deposited a rebound at the 5:47 mark. The score was evened up by the time the second intermission arrived as Dallas converted on a 3-on-1 that was finished off by Blake Comeau. With 49 saves, including 13 in overtime, goaltender Pekka Rinne established a playoff career high.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA RELATIONS

PRESS INFORMATION
Inquiries about the Predators may be directed to Kevin Wilson (kwilson@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2335), Nick Barnowski (nbarnowski@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2126) or Emily Polanowicz (epolanowicz@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2347) of the club's communications department.

CREDENTIALS
Season passes are issued to those members of the media who regularly cover the Nashville Predators. These passes will be honored for entrance to Bridgestone Arena and all working areas for all 2019-20 regular-season home games. Single-game credentials must be submitted by email on company letterhead to Nick Barnowski (nbarnowski@nashvillepredators.com) by 10AM CT on the day prior to the game in question. Press box space is limited. For this reason, the Predators cannot guarantee credentials to those members of the media who request such passes after the deadline.

Credentials will be issued only to representatives of legitimate news-gathering agencies and websites. They will be confiscated if worn by members of the media whose names do not appear on the credential. Only credentialed members of the media are allowed to sit in the press box.

MEDIA ENTRANCE
All credentialed media may enter through Bridgestone Arena's Sixth Avenue Garage Entrance located inside the ground level of the parking structure on Sixth Avenue near Demonbreun. Credentials are also available at this entrance on game nights, which will be open three hours prior to face-off. Practices at the arena and morning skates are also accessible through this entrance.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Accredited photographers may receive location assignments from team photographer John Russell (john.a.russell@vanderbilt.edu) on game nights or in advance via email. In accordance to NHL Images policies and procedures, freelance photographers and roving passes are not permitted.

PRESS BOX & RADIO/TV BOOTHS
The Bridgestone Arena press box is located in Sections 310 (television and radio broadcasts), 311 (home and visiting beat writers) and 312 (local TV crews, scouts, other media), and can be reached from the event level by taking the elevators/freight elevator near the Zamboni entrance to Level 4. Proceed to your left out of the elevators, and the press box is three sections down.

WIRELESS INTERNET SERVICE
Wireless internet is available to media throughout Bridgestone Arena. The password can be obtained through the Predators communications staff. For technical assistance, please contact Michael Paul (mpaul@nashvillepredators.com; 615-770-2196).

2019-20 NASHVILLE PREDATORS MEDIA GUIDE
The Nashville Predators 2019-20 media guide is available for download on the Predators Pressbox page, or at nashvillepredators.com/mediaguide.

NASHVILLE PREDATORS PRESSBOX PAGE
NashvillePredators.com/Pressbox is a media resource page which contains team publications; in-game and postgame notes, quotes and audio files; online news links; daily stats reports and game notes; and other valuable information. Access to the site is available through the Predators communications department.

PRE-GAME INTERVIEWS
Media interviews are available outside the Predators' dressing room up to 90 minutes before each game by special request. Writers, television and radio stations seeking live or taped pregame interviews must request the coach or player and state the specific interview time to Predators communications representative AT OR BEFORE the game-day skate.

POSTGAME
Head Coach Peter Laviolette will be available in the event-level media lounge for his postgame press conference following each home game. The Predators' dressing room will open no later than five minutes following the conclusion of the game. In the event of a team meeting, the room will open at the conclusion of the meeting. Transcriptions of both head coaches' postgame availabilities, as well as various Predators and visitors player quotes from the locker room will be distributed to the media in a timely manner following each home game. The freight elevator outside Sections 312/313 will make two express trips to the event level immediately following the game.

MEDIA WORK ROOMS
Work space and media dining are available in the media lounge/workroom on the event level's south side between the Zamboni tunnel and visitor's dressing room. These rooms open three hours before the opening face-off. There is a second media lounge adjacent to Sections 310/311. Statistics, beverages and snacks will be available in the upper lounge during intermissions. Credentials must be displayed at all times to gain access to all media areas.

PRACTICE SESSIONS
Locker rooms will open no later than five minutes after the conclusion of practice. In the event of a team meeting, the room will open at the conclusion of the meeting.

BETWEEN-PERIOD TV INTERVIEWS
Requests are to be made before or during the morning skate. A communications representative will be on hand to assist with all requests.

OFF-LIMITS
The medical room, players' lounge and shower/lavatory areas are closed to all media. The main locker room will be open to the media. Media are not permitted to enter the coaches' offices unless escorted by a member of the Predators communications department.

INJURY REPORTS
Predators General Manager David Poile, Head Coach Peter Laviolette and communications personnel are the only Predators representatives who will offer comments on player injuries or injury updates.

ALL-STAR GAME

NASHVILLE ALL-STAR GAME

On Oct. 17, 2014, the National Hockey League announced that the Nashville Predators and Bridgestone Arena had been selected as host to the 2016 NHL® All-Star Game, the League's multi-day mid-season showcase. The All-Star® Weekend was held Saturday, Jan. 30 and Sunday, Jan. 31, and included the NHL All-Star Skills Competition™ and a fan fair in addition to the NHL®All-Star Game.

The year was packed with many firsts and surprises, from country music stars making an appearance during the All-Star Skills Competition™, to a new 3-on-3 format for the All-Star Game. Outside of hockey, there was Fan Fair held in Music City Center, along with four days of outdoor concerts in beautiful weather and a stunning red carpet that was attended by tens of thousands. Considered one of, if not the best All-Star Weekend in history, with an economic impact of $25 million for the city.

"It was one of the best events I've ever been to, and I'm not just saying that because I'm in Nashville, I'm saying it because that's how I feel. The city was unbelievable, the weather was unbelievable, the events were terrific, the game was great, the Skills Competition was great, the fans as usual were outstanding, and you couldn't have asked for anything better, really. As a hockey fan and a family that is fans of the game, we thoroughly enjoyed every part of it." - Peter Laviolette, Head Coach Nashville Predators

"Nashville glowed Predators gold this weekend, and the whole hockey world got to see it. From the star-studded entertainment to the high-energy arena atmosphere, our city wowed visitors from NHL cities across the continent and did our team proud." - Jessica Bliss, *The Tennessean

NASHVILLE ALL-STAR QUICK HITS

- Just the sixth time that the NHL® All-Star Game has been hosted in the Southern United States and the first time since 2011.
- Country Music Hall of Fame member and Nashville Predators Foundation board member Vince Gill was named "Mayor of Smashville" for the event and longtime Predators broadcaster Terry Crisp was named "Vice Mayor of Smashville." In these roles, Gill and Crisp were the faces of the NHL® All-Star Game, and helped showcase the enthusiastic base of hockey supports in the region and for all that Nashville had to offer this premier event.
- Attendance to Saturday night's All-Star Skills Competition™ and Sunday's NHL® All-Star Game was at a peak of 17,113 people. There were also concerts and Winter Park happening just outside of Bridgestone Arena. Combined concert attendance throughout the multi-day event was 59,000 people.
- Along with bringing in numerous fans of the NHL, 5,000 room nights were rented out during this multi-day event for NHL officials, team executives, and international media.
- The All-Star Game was the most watched and highest rated All-Star Game in NBC's history (1.194 million average; 1.89 million peak).
- Merchandise sales were amongst the best the NHL has ever seen for an All-Star Weekend.
- Fan Fair, presented by Bridgestone, was held in Music City Center and posed opportunities for fans to pose for photos with the Stanley Cup, meeting and getting autographs from players, along with interactive booths throughout.
- The Nashville Predators had a League-high four players involved in the event – James Neal, Roman Josi, Pekka Rinne, and Shea Weber.

FORD ICE CENTER

Ford Ice Center Antioch, which opened for public use in August 2014, was built as a provision of the June 2012 lease agreement between the city of Nashville and Bridgestone Arena. A component of the public-private partnership between Metro and the Nashville Predators, Ford Ice Center Antioch was built to help continue the growth of hockey and skating in Middle Tennessee. The facility's central location helps generate local economic development, which in turn increases the demand for nearby lodging, dining, shopping and entertainment.

Ford Ice Center Antioch houses two sheets of ice, eight locker rooms, four party rooms and more, providing an opportunity for players of all levels and ages more opportunities to participate in hockey and ice skating. Ford Ice Center Antioch is also connected to a six-acre park; this provides ample outdoor space for dry land training opportunities for a variety of work outs.

In addition to housing the Predators Youth Hockey initiatives like Get Out and Learn! (G.O.A.L.!), Ford Ice Center Antioch is home to the Scott Hamilton Skating Academy. Hamilton, a longtime Franklin, Tennessee, resident and Olympic Gold Medalist, helps develop curriculum, make staffing decisions for the Academy and more.

With initiatives such as youth and adult hockey, "Learn to Skate" and public skating participants, friends and family, there is something for the whole family at Ford Ice Center Antioch. Since hosting the Nashville Predators Rookie Tournament in September 2014 (with the Florida Panthers, Tampa Bay Lightning and Boston Bruins) Ford Ice Center Antioch has hosted several nation-wide USA Hockey adult rec-league tournaments and skating showcases in addition to local and regional events such as the 2019 NWHL All-Star Weekend and the 2017 U.S. Figure Skating Eastern Great Lakes Regional Figure Skating Championships.

Perani's Hockey World
Ford Ice Center's Pro Shop is operated by Perani's Hockey World, one of the premier hockey shops in the United States. The Nashville location is Perani's 24th retail store and its first in the southeast. In addition to operating 24 retail stores, Perani's runs an E-commerce business that is one of the largest in North America and is dedicated to offering their customers the best customer service, the lowest prices and largest product selection. It's the Toy Store for the hockey player!

For more information, visit NashvillePredators.com/FordIceCenter.

Ford Ice Center Bellevue, scheduled to open for public use in October 2019, will be the second ice facility the Predators will operate, alongside Ford Ice Center Antioch. The rink, which will be located within One Bellevue Place, was created via a partnership with members of the Metro Government of Nashville and Davidson County Office of the Mayor, Sports Authority of the Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County and the Nashville Board of Parks and Recreation with a goal of continuing to grow the sport of hockey in Middle Tennessee. The development was announced in March 2017 and work began at the site for the first time in June 2018.

The 110,000 square-foot facility – nearly 20,000 square-feet larger than its Ford Ice Center Antioch counterpart – will be home to two sheets of ice with room for more than 1,000 spectators on one rink and more than 500 on the other. Both rinks will feature a state-of-the-art ice plant system by Cimco as well as two brand-new, electric Zambonis, the only ones of its kind in the state of Tennessee. In addition to the rinks, the facility will also be home to "Draft Picks," a full-service bar and restaurant; a Twice Daily convenience store location; a Perani's Hockey World retail outlet; workout space for hockey players and figure skaters; and private party rooms available for rental.

Ford Ice Center Bellevue will host many youth and adult hockey tournaments as well as tenants that include the Scott Hamilton Skating Academy and the Nashville Jr. Predators AAA program. Staples of the Ford Ice Center Antioch youth and adult hockey offerings, such as the G.O.A.L.!, Little Preds Learn to Play and PREDecessor, will also be offered at the new Bellevue facility.

The facility will be the finishing touch to an already elaborate development at One Bellevue Place and couldn't have happened without the NHL, NHLPA, the Nashville Predators, the Sports Authority and the city of Bellevue working together to continue the prosperity of an already-thriving Metro Parks and Recreation Department.

One Bellevue Place's retail space is 375,000 square feet and held its grand opening in August 2018. Within the space are more than 300 Class A apartments, 15 restaurants and shopping outlets, and a movie theater, plus a planned Marriott hotel. For more information, visit onebellevueplace.com.

CENTENNIAL SPORTSPLEX

222 25th Avenue North
Nashville, TN 37203
(615) 862-8480

The Thomas Frist Centennial Sportsplex is operated by the Metro Board of Parks and Recreation in Nashville. The facility was made possible by a landmark land exchange between Metro Parks and healthcare provider Hospital Corporation of America (HCA). The city exchanged 10 prime acres adjacent to Centennial Park for $12 million. The money was used to build the Sportsplex. During the summer of 2014, the ice arena at Centennial Sportsplex underwent major renovations, including replacing the ice coolant systems and installing new dasher boards and glass at Rink B.

The $20 million, 145,000 square-foot Sportsplex features a tennis center, a fitness center, an aquatics center and two full-size ice rinks. The aquatics center, named after Olympian Tracy Caulkins, has been the site of numerous U.S. Senior and Junior National Swim Meets, the YMCA National Swim Meet and, to date, still holds one of the fastest times ever swam for the men's 50-meter freestyle, set in the inaugural swim meet in February 1990 by Olympian Tom Jager.

The ice arena opened on Jan. 2, 1990, with one sheet, and a second sheet was added on Feb. 1, 1999. It is home to the Nashville Predators' practice facility, the Nashville Youth Hockey League, Nashville Skating Academy and the Nashville Figure Skating Club. The building holds offices for the Predators' coaching staff and hockey operations department, a full dressing room, weight room and an athletic training section.

In addition, Centennial Sportsplex hosts adult hockey leagues, figure skating, numerous public sessions, figure skating competitions, ice shows, hockey tournaments and camps. In 1997, it was one of the sites for the USFSA National Championships.

Centennial Sportsplex offers instructional classes in skating, swimming and tennis, as well as public usage in each of those areas. The ice arena and aquatic area also offers special rates for parties, schools and group events. For further information, contact the Centennial Sportsplex at (615) 862-8490 or visit nashville.gov/sportsplex.

The Predators unveiled their logo, a saber-toothed tiger, in Nashville's downtown First American Center on September 25, 1997, 26 years after a fang and foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger were found in a cave just below the building's address. In May of 1971, excavation began at the downtown Nashville site of what today is the 28-story Regions Center. Further digging revealed a cave containing the nine-inch fang and a foreleg bone of a saber-toothed tiger, extinct for at least 10,000 years. Radiocarbon tests on revealed that it could have possibly been one of the last of its breed to exist. Scientists believe that some time during the last glacial period (15,000-80,000 years ago) part of the cave was the den of the saber-toothed tiger.

The discovery, made in August 1971, marked only the fifth of its kind in North America. For more than 35 years, the prehistoric artifacts were housed in the building above their excavation site, until November 2016, when they were presented to the team for housing inside Bridgestone Arena.

The saber-toothed tiger logo was co-designed by JDK Design of Burlington, Vermont and Dye, Van Mol & Lawrence of Nashville.
The naming of the Predators was a direct reflection of the fans of Nashville and their choice.

During the public events and through focus groups and related surveys, fans selected the name "Predators" by a two-to-one margin over the second choice. On Nov. 13, 1997, the saber-toothed tiger logo was unveiled for the first time with the Predators insignia attached to it. On Feb. 12, 1998, then-Head Coach Barry Trotz and Assistant Coach Paul Gardner unveiled the Predators' inaugural home and away jerseys at Cool Springs Galleria.

On Nov. 21, 2001, the Predators debuted a third jersey with a 4-3 win against the Chicago Blackhawks at Bridgestone Arena. The jersey featured an "animated" saber-tooth tiger logo on the crest and tiger skulls on the shoulders. It was retired following the 2006-07 season.

For the 2007-08 season, the Predators, along with the other 29 NHL teams, introduced the Rbk EDGE Uniform System to further meet the performance demands of today's player.

The Predators would debut a new third jersey on Nov. 27, 2009 against the St. Louis Blues. The sweaters, which features a vintage-inspired lace-up front, a subtle checkerboard pattern lining the bottom of the jersey, and a bolder and more simplified color scheme, were worn for the past two seasons, but will be set aside in 2011-12, making way for the first logo and color scheme redesign in franchise history.

The logo and uniforms for the 2011-12 season were designed to develop a powerful, long-term brand message and help infuse new life into the Nashville Predators imagery and brand with a more contemporary, aggressive, streamlined logo that still maintains the basic Pred Head concept. A new secondary logo was also designed to represent the state flag of Tennessee and Nashville's Music City heritage simultaneously, with a guitar pick shape incorporating the three stars of the state's three grand divisions – West, Middle and East. The "Predators Gold" sweaters create a distinctive, dominant, bold look that balances traditional elements of classic uniforms, with those unique to Nashville – guitar strings in the numbering and lettering, fangs in the neck area and piano keys on the inside of the collars.

Another redesign came for the 2017-18 season as adidas unveiled the new ADIZERO Authentic NHL jerseys and uniforms for all 31 NHL teams. The lighter, cooler, stronger designs help solidify the team's visual identity within the league by placing more emphasis on their signature Gold color. The adidas design team worked with the Predators on both the home and away uniforms to simplify them, and use the signature Gold in a bolder and more prevalent way. In addition, the sleeve numbers have been adjusted to include the same six-string graphic motif as the current back numbers.

NASHVILLE HOCKEY HISTORY

In the spring of 1962, a small group of businessmen led by David Patterson put up $125,000 to place a team in the Eastern Hockey League. The Dixie Flyers, named after a passenger train said to be the oldest in the South, were placed in the nine-team league. The purple-and-gold colored Flyers played their first regular-season home game (a 2-0 loss to Knoxville) on Oct. 27, 1962 at the Municipal Auditorium. The Flyers endured a rough opening season, winning 16 games and qualifying for the playoffs, only to be swept in three games by Greensboro. However, it didn't take long for the Flyers to make their presence felt.

After losing in the 1965 Finals, the Flyers went on to win EHL Walker Cup championships in 1966 and 1967, the only two professional ice hockey titles in the city's history. John McLellan, who went on to coach the Toronto Maple Leafs, coached the Flyers. The Flyers swept each of their three playoff series' in 1966. They won the championship by going 11-0 in the playoffs and becoming the first team in minor league ice hockey ever to march through the playoffs undefeated.

In 1967, Patterson's group sold the team to a business group headed by Mark Parrish. The Cinderella '69 team reached the Finals, but lost in seven tough games to the Clinton (N.Y.) Comets in the Walker Cup Finals. Shortly after, the Flyers' attendance slipped dramatically. Barely able to scrape up enough funds to start the 1970-71 campaign, the Flyers folded following the season.

Hockey returned to Nashville when baseball guru Larry Schmittou, who brought minor league baseball back to Nashville in 1978 after a 15-year absence, did the same for hockey in July 1981. Thus the South Stars were founded, a team that played in the Central Hockey League and had the Minnesota North Stars as its NHL affiliate. The logo was a hockey player swinging a guitar representing the Music City while using yellow, orange and green.

The 1981-82 team finished fourth in its division and lost to Wichita, 3-0, in the first round of the playoffs. Gene Ubriaco, who went on to coach the NHL's Pittsburgh Penguins and 1992 Italian Olympic team, coached the Stars.

Under new ownership (Randy Van Meter), the Stars pulled out of the CHL in 1982 and entered the old Atlantic Coast Hockey League (ACHL), playing teams geographically closer to Nashville. The Stars finished 11-43-4 and suffered through a season of low attendance. They began the following season, only to fold in December 1983. Two Knoxville wrestling promoters, Bob Polk and Ron Fuller, rescued the sport five years later. They purchased an East Coast Hockey League franchise in January 1989. The Knights, with popular ex-South Stars player Archie Henderson as coach, attracted an astonishing 150,000 fans their first season (1989-90). While wearing red and blue uniforms adorned with the logo of a knight's mask, they made the playoffs but lost in the first round. During the 1990-91 season, Peter Horachek, former Predators assistant coach, served as the Knights' head coach and director of hockey operations.

The Knights went through three ownership changes in their seven-year history. They twice went to the semifinals of the ECHL playoffs - in 1993 under ex-NHL standout and coach Nick Fotiu, and in 1995 under coach Mark Kumpel.

Perhaps the top Knights highlight came during the 1992-93 season when Trevor Jobe scored what is still a minor hockey league record 85 goals, with 76 assists, for 161 points and 12 hat tricks in his MVP season.

In the spring of 1996, after failed negotiations for a lease agreement with the Auditorium, the Knights departed to Pensacola, Fla. There, they were renamed the Ice Pilots.

Hockey was revived again with the arrival of the NightHawks in the fall of 1996. The Central Hockey League team only won 12 games, the worst in CHL history. The red-and-blue NightHawks' logo was a hawk showing its claws. Nashvillian Mike Friedman purchased the team in the summer of 1997. In a renewed salute to the old Dixie Flyers, Friedman changed both the name to the Ice Flyers and the colors to blue and gray. David Lohrie led the team to a 41-win season and a second-place finish in the CHL East and was named coach of the year. The team lost in the semi-finals to the eventual CHL Champ Columbus in April 1998. The impending arrival of the Predators led Friedman to move the franchise to Albany, Ga.

This closed the book on three separate chapters, a combined 21 years, of minor league hockey in Nashville, starting and ending with the team named the Flyers. Former Predators President Jack Diller is well aware and appreciative of Nashville's hockey pioneers.

"The team and sport obviously made a significant impact on many people here in Middle Tennessee. Other teams such as the South Stars, Knights, NightHawks and Ice Flyers also enjoyed varying degrees of success - all of which helped fuel the excitement for the NHL and arrival of the Predators," Diller said.

Excerpted from Hockey in Nashville before the Predators, written by hockey historian Harold Huggins and originally printed in the Predators Press: Commemorative Issue, October 10, 1998.
